COMPLETE GS CAMP PLANS FOR NEXT WEEK

Plans for the Gettysburg Girl Scout Day Camp to be held June 29 to July 3 at Camp Happy Valley, near Fairfield, were completed Tuesday evening by the director, Mrs. Arthur Phiel Jr., and staff members at a meeting at the camp.

The staff includes Mrs. Donald White, crafts, assisted by senior aides, June Murray and Nancy Harner; nature, Mrs. Wayne Husband, and music, Mrs. Robert H. Deardorff. Unit leaders will include: Brownies, Mrs. Patricia McCarthy and senior aide, Cindy Streett; fly-ups, Mrs. Ray Breighner and senior aide, Sharon Stevens; Junior A, Mrs. Roy Millhimes with senior aide, Bonnie Baker; Junior B, Mrs. Mark Spalding with Linda Rudisill as senior aide.

The Cadettes, directed by Miss Louise Moyer, will be learning new skills such as lashing, knots and pitching tents.

GIVE BUS SCHEDULE

Buses to the camp will leave St. James Lutheran Church at 8:20 a.m. each morning. The buses will return to Gettysburg in the afternoon, leaving Camp Happy Valley at 3 o'clock.

Stops to be made enroute to and from the camp include St. James Lutheran Church, Howard Ave., Windbriar Lane and along the Fairfield Rd. wherever a group of girls gather.

Each girl is requested to bring her own drinking cup. The Brownies and flyups will have cooking experiences with wood fires and the Juniors and Cadettes will stay overnight during one night of the week.

Concluding the day camp will be skits presented by the girls on Friday afternoon, July 3, at 1:30 o'clock.

The Gettysburg girls camp will conclude the series of four day camps held for the Girl Scouts of the county.

POND OWNERS GIVEN HELP ON PROBLEMS

Problems that may be faced by the approximately 800 countians who have farm ponds were outlined by various speakers Tuesday evening at the farm of Ray and Edward Reichart, Littlestown R. 2.

About 50 attended the meeting arranged by County Agent Thomas E. Piper, who reminded the group to take safety precautions when allowing swimmers in their pools and to always have a pole or rope available to pull out anyone who may get into trouble in the water.

George Berggren, extension agronomy specialist, reminded the pond owners that if they intend to put chemicals in their ponds to kill weeds, they first must obtain permission from the state Fish Commission.

ADVICE ON FISH

Berggren said those who get permission should treat only half their pond at a time. The dying weeds soak up oxygen and thus suffocate the fish if all are killed simultaneously.

He recommended use of fertilizer early in the year to prevent sunlight from reaching the bottom and thus the weeds never get a chance to grow. "If you put your arm in the water up to the

CENTER DRIVE GATHERS $500

Youngsters and a few of their parents from the Gettysburg Youth Center have collected $500 so far in their drive to stave off closing of the Center on N. Washington St.

Mrs. Rex Maddox said one person gave $100, and the other donations have been a $20, a few $10s and the rest $1s and change."

The group has covered about one-fourth of the town area, and expects to cover the remainder "by the end of this week or Monday or Tuesday of next week."

There is hope the young men and women may have completed the drive by the time they gather Saturday night at 6:30 at the Center to go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maddox for a hay ride and barn dance.

Mrs. Maddox said the youths reported "a good reception nearly everywhere they went," with only "about four" persons condemning the young people for seeking to raise funds for their center.

Is Awarded Annual AAUW Scholarship

MISS GRIFFIN

Miss Linia Lee Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Griffin, New Oxford R. 1, and a graduate this year of the New Oxford High School, has been warded the annual scholarship from the Gettysburg branch of t' American Association of University Women. She will enter Millersville State College in the fall to major in library science. Her minor will be in English.

She is the eldest of seven children and has worked after school and summers for the last two years as a nurse's aide at the Brethren Church Home at Cross Keys. In school she was a member of the chorus, the Future Teacher's Association and the Library Club. She has helped in the school library for the last three years and has been a Girl Scout for seven years.

SCOUTS WILL TRY TO TRAP GYPSY MOTH

Members of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District within the next week will put out 650 traps throughout Adams County to determine whether the gypsy moth that has wrought havoc in the New England states has reached this area.

Leaders of the Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer units of the district Tuesday night met at a round table session in the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank at which Samuel Maxwell, of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture outlined the request of the state that the Scouts put out the traps and examine them periodically.

He showed a large plastic model of the moth, and described its ravages in the New England states. The moth completely defoliates trees and the trees then die within a year. He showed pictures of mountains in the New England area where the moth had stripped bare all trees over the entire mountain.

TO CHECK REGULARLY

No moths have been found in York and Adams Counties, which should be next if the moth is continuing to move southward, Maxwell told the group. The plan is to locate the moth as soon as they arrive in an area and eradicate them as quickly as possible.

The 650 traps distributed consist as a small paper cup with a small hole in the top. A special grease is on the hole. Inside the cup is a small bit of cotton on which two drops of a lure is placed, to draw the male gypsy moth to the cup, where it is held by the grease. The Scouts were asked to check the traps every three weeks throughout the summer and if a moth is found, to report immediately to Wilbur Diehl, Biglerville, Black Walnut District project chairman, who in turn will notify the state.

Plans were outlined for a district program on "'Strengthen America's Heritage."

Rev. W. R. Sammel Addresses Club

Rev. W. R. Sammel discussed "The Computer Age" Tuesday evening at the last dinner-meeting of the season of the Gettysburg-Adams Torch Club in Trinity United Church of Christ.

Rev. Sammel gave a brief history of computers, their mechanics and uses in today's business. He described machines used in Harrisburg, where the records of five government departs are processed, the billing department of United Telephone Co., Middlesex, Cumberland Co., where 100,000 monthly statements are prepared for telephone users, and the General Electric Center at Tempe, Ariz.

He described the character and work of digital computers used by business, industry, communications, transportation, and medical and scientific research. He also described the Analogue Computer, an electrical measuring device used by hydrologists in determining water resources.

Atty. John A. McPhail, retiring president, presided.

KC COUNCIL TO OBSERVE 40TH ANNIVERSARY

The local Knights of Columbus will mark their 40th anniversary Thursday night.

Members of the council and their ladies will assemble at 6:50 Thursday evening in the Red Room of the local parochial school to march as a group in procession to St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church for a Mass at which the knights and their ladies will receive Communion as a group. Following the Mass the group will adjourn to the Cannon Cafeteria for dinner and dancing.

The local council came into existence in 1924 with a series of meetings and activities which culminated July 27 when the Third Degree of the order was exemplified for the 90 members who comprised the new council.

FR. STOCK SPOKE

At a dinner program held that evening in the Eagle Hotel Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, then pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church here; Leo G. Griffith, Pittsburgh, state deputy, and James A. Flaherty, supreme knight of the K of C, were among the speakers who, according to The Gettysburg Times of the next day, urged "loyalty to God and country; steadfast devotion to the principles enunciated in the Constitution of the United States and strict adherence to the six cardinal purposes outlined in the preamble to the Constitution of the U. S."

The first officers of the local council, elected in June, 1924, were Peter C. Stock, grand knight; Edward Swisher, deputy grand knight; Joseph Maguire, chancellor; Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, chaplain; Frank J. Slonaker, warden; Bernard P. Maguire, inner guard, and Charles Cook, outer guard.

BELONGED ELSEWHERE

Slonaker, the warden elected in 1924, recently ended a series of terms as Grand Knight of the organization during which time he increased the present membership from about 50 to 90.

Prior to June, 1924, a number of local men had been members of the Knights of Columbus in McSherrystown and elsewhere. When the Pennsylvania Knights of Columbus voted $25,000 for the erection of a memorial front to St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here honoring the church's part as a hospital in the Battle of Gettysburg, it was decided that the local men should form a council of the K of C here.

CONDITION OF PRIEST SERIOUS

Rt. Rev. William F. Culhane, 66, treasurer and former vice president of Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, who was strickened ill at his desk last week, is in very serious condition in the York General Hospital, according to Dr. George L. Morningstor, college physician.

Monsignor Culhane was removed to the Annie Warner Hospital immediately after he was stricken, and was doing well until his condition worsened Tuesday when it was decided to transfer him to York for further tests and examinations.

The attending physician in York is Dr. Van Buskirk, former professor of neurology at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Another neurosurgeon is also in attendance.

The diagnosis of Monsignor Culhane's condition is that there is probable leaking aneurysm in the brain. While his condition is very serious at present, there is a chance of complete recovery, according to the doctors.

Monsignor Culhane suffered a heart attack a few years ago, but he has been in excellent condition until the present.

Plan Services For Mrs. Williamson

Funeral services will be held at the Peters Funeral Home on Carlisle St. Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock for Mrs. Anna E. Williamson, who died in the Warner Hospital Tuesday. The services will be conducted by the Rev. William H. Marshall III, local Baptist pastor, in connection with a viewing for Mrs. Williamson to be held at the funeral home.

Services will be held at Jersey Shore Saturday at 2 p.m. and interment will be made there. Officiating at Jersey Shore will be the Rev. Walter Gilbride. Mrs. Williamson was a member of the Evangelical Church at Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting of Explorer Post 79 scheduled to be held at St. James Lutheran Church here tonight has been postponed until Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the church.

Ike, 22 Youngsters Chat On Lawn

Twenty-two boys and girls chatted this morning for more than a half hour with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower about politics and government and then tossed a few general and personal questions while television cameras recorded the conversations.

The discussion on the south lawn of the General's Carlisle St. office was filmed for showing July 12 at 1 p.m. on the "Discovery" show, a weekly feature of Channel 13 of the American Broadcasting Company. Its title will be "Discovery Goes to the GOP Convention."

When preparations for the show were begun some weeks ago, Gettysburg school authorities were asked to provide a group of 15 to 25 youngsters of late elementary age and the group today numbered 22 all were boys and girls who have just completed the Fffth Grade.

VARIETY OF QUESTIONS

The "Discovery" show is aimed at children of about that age.

The youngsters had submitted some questions and the show director supplied additional ones. Many were on politics and government and were related to the upcoming convention.

One of the pupils asked Ike "Why would anyone want to be President?" and he was asked several times about top decisions in his own life. He listed the decision to run for President and the D-Day decision as his biggest ones.

He was asked about his favorite dishes and expressed a strong liking for "Pennsylvania Dutch dishes" and when he was asked what was the "best thing that ever happened to you," he replied: "Marrying Mamie."

PUPILS IN GROUP

Appearing to the right of Gen. Eisenhower in the picture is Frank Buxton of the staff of the "Discovery" show who helped the flow of questions. The youngsters in the group included:

Linda Ditzler, 425 Baltimore St.; Michael LeGay, 33 South St.; Kim Blocher, 408 Queen St.; Neal Kendlehart, 250 Highland Ave.; Bruce Hill, 710 Highland Ave.; Michael Smith, 724 Long Lane; Pamela McCoy, 632 Fairview Ave.; Kathrine Barnes, 309 Ridge Ave.; Justine Unger, 351 W. Middle St.; Deanna Waybrant, 454 Baltimore St.; Lana Blubaugh, 101 Hanover St.; Marguerite Lane, 34 York St.; Edward Altemose, 140 Barlow St.; Truman Eyler, N. Fourth St.; Robert Harner, 255 E. Lincoln Ave.; Kathy Shoemaker, 43 E. Broadway; Amy Hoffman, 107 W. Broadway; Drusilla Stevens, 524 Carlisle St.; Gregory Deitch, R. 3; Janice Fissel, R. 2; Kenneth Smith, R. 3, and Neil Fair, R. 2.

Fairfield Priest Transferred Today

Rev. Fr. John J. McAnulty, pastor of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church, Fairfield, for the past 10 years, has been transferred by the Most Rev. George L. Leech, bishop of the Harrisburg Diocese, to become pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Shamokin.

Rev. Fr. McAnulty is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's College and Seminary. During his long pastorate in Fairfield he has made improvements to the church property and enjoys the friendship of friends throughout the county. His transfer becomes effective Tuesday.

Rev. Fr. Daniel J. Mahoney, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Shamokin, will succeed Rev. Fr. McAnulty. He will also be the administrator of St. Rita Church, Blue Ridge Summit.

BLOOD DONORS

The list of blood donors at the Warner Hospital for the first two days of this week includes Thelma Redding, Margaret and Mary Louise Ritter and Margaret Baker, all of Littlestown.

BIG DAMAGES BEING SOUGHT BY BIZZY BEE

Damages in excess of one-half million dollars are sought by Bizzy Bee Cleaners, Inc., Littlestown, in a lawsuit charging three corporations with violating the Sherman Antitrust Act.

The Adams County firm has filed the civil action in U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania against Bankers Commercial Corp., C.I.T. Corp. and Ward Industries Corp.

The York law firm of Markowitz, Kagen and Griffith is counsel for Bizzy Bee.

EQUIPMENT DEFECTIVE

The plaintiff says it purchased dry cleaning and laundering equipment from Ward Industries which in turn financed the deal through Bankers Commercial and C.I.T. Corp. The purchases were made by the shareholders of the plaintiff firm prior to its incorporation.

The complaint says the defendant firms entered into similar arrangements with competitors of the plaintiff. The Adams County firm engages in interstate commerce.

Bizzy Bee says it purchased equipment Feb. 20, 1961, from Ward which it had financed through Bankers Commercial and the equipment proved to be defective and unserviceable. It claims the defendants refused to honor the warranty and Bizzy Bee advised them no further payments would be made on the equipment.

CLAIMS CONSPIRACY

The plaintiff also says it purchased equipment Oct. 20, 1960, from Ward through C.I.T. Corp.

National Museum Map Marks 25th Birthday; Over 5 Million See It

A thirteen-year-old boy with the vision of a prophet is credited with founding what is generally regarded as the largest collection of Civil War relics in the world.

Young John Rosensteel, a bewildered lad who had listened to the thunder of cannon and the screams of suffering soldiers for three days before he ventured onto the calm of the battlefield, started the famous Rosensteel collection July 5, 1863, when he lifted a bloody rifle from the lap of a dead soldier propped against a tree near Spangler's Spring. And as he worked doggedly with other townspeople during the next several weeks to clear the fields of dead bodies he worked with equal fervor to gather abandoned weapons, clothing and personal belongings of the dead to keep alive the memory of the holocaust.

John Rosensteel was obsessed with his collection and, when his brother's son was 11 years of age, set him about collecting the hordes of articles still lying about the area nearly 70 years ago.

WILL EXPLAIN 'FIELD CUTTING

Gettysburg's Civil War Round Table Thursday night will take a look at the tree removal program on the battlefield from the standpoint of the reports of the soldiers who fought here.

Dr. Harry Pfanz, historian for the local national park, will give details of the tree removals, using as a basis quotations from the reports of men who fought here concerning the scene as they saw it. He will show what has been done to restore the view described. The talk will not only indicate why certain wooded areas were cleared but will also describe additional areas to be cleared in the future.

The Round Table members will meet at the Pennsylvania Monument at 7 o'clock Thursday evening for the first talk of the series, and then will move to Little Round Top and to other areas of the field in an auto caravan.

Officials of the Round Table issued a general invitation to anyone interested in seeing the changes in the appearance of the field caused by the cutting last winter and the plans for cutting in other areas, to join the group for the trip by being at the Pennsylvania Monument at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

The trip over the field is the first of a series of "traveling meetings" to be held by the Round Table monthly during the summer.

Christmas Trees To Be July Topic

July 2 may be a hot summer day but it will also be a time to prepare for midwinter, according to a meeting notice sent out by Associate County Agent Joseph F. Lutz.

The date, July 2, at 7 p.m., has been set as the time for a course in "Care of Christmas Trees" for those in the county who raise the trees. The session will be held at the Christmas tree plantation of Samuel G. Sollenberger, 3½ miles south of here along the Littlestown Rd. Ed Farrand, extension forester from Pennsylvania State University, and Howard Oesterling of Marysville will be speakers. Oesterling will demonstrate conversion of a hedge clipper to trim Christmas trees.

None Hurt When Car, Truck Crash

Damage totaled $80 but no one was injured when a truck and car collided 2.3 miles north of here on the Biglerville Rd. at 2:20 Tuesday afternoon.

State police said James Dunbar Pickering, 40, McKnightstown, was driving south in the truck and sought to make a left turn into a private drive. At the same moment, John Russell Spahr, 65, Pine Grove Furnace, was also driving south, and was seeking to pass the truck. The two vehicles collided, causing $10 damage to the truck and $70 to the car.

SOROPTIMIST COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Mrs. H. W. Baker, re-elected president of the Soroptmist Club of Gettysburg, presided at the last business meeting for the summer at the REA building Tuesday evening with 29 members present. Reports were given by Mrs. Donald Carver, secretary, and Miss Anna Weaver, Littlestown, treasurer, and Mrs. Baker announced her committees for the new club year.

Final yearly reports were given by committee chairmen.

Mrs. Mares Sherman reported there were 17 members with 100 per cent attendance this year and said the awards dinner will be held at the Altland Hotel, Abbottstown, July 14. Mrs. Samuel Higinbotham, classification and membership, announced her committee had elected and installed four new members. Mrs. Donald Myers reported for constitution and bylaws; Miss Martha Stallsmith, extension, gave a detailed report of her committee and told of the dinner she had at her home previous to Tuesday evening's meeting for the new members, the president and her committee, for education on Soroptimism for the new members; Miss Evelyn Altoff, Littlestown, finance, gave a yearly report and presented the budget for the year 1964-65 which was accepted. Mrs. William Shoemaker, hospitality, reported on cards and flowers sent members and the arranging of the hostesses for the coffee hour; Miss Jane Stallsmith reported on international goodwill and understanding; Mrs. Henry Bream, on the program that had been set up for the last year; Dr. Elizabeth Gregg, public affairs, reported on citizenship awards made to high school Seniors. Mrs. Frederic Griest reported for public relations. Mrs. Sizer Burton reported on service objectives and the

LIONS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Speakers at outdoor sessions will become more audible as a result of action taken by the Cashtown Community Lions Club at its meeting Tuesday evening in the club-sponsored community park near Cashtown.

The members authorized purchase of an amplifying system, to be operated by batteries, for use by the club at its functions and to be lent to other organizations.

William Lau, Spring Grove, newly elected district governor of the Lions, installed these officers of the Cashtown Lions at the meeting: Harry Biesecker, president; R. Dale Bream, William Kane, John Bream Sr., vice presidents; Dorsey Stevens, secretary; Glenn Hoke, treasurer; Ray Keefer, Lion tamer; Ernest Rebert, tail twister, and Harold Sharpe, Arthur Phiel Jr., Elliott Schlosser, members of the board of directors.

Sgt. Donald L. Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Carver Sr., Gettysburg R. D., was introduced as a guest. Stationed at Fort Polk, La., he is home on a 20-day furlough after having participated in "Operation Desert Strike."

Retiring President Donald Hershey, who presided, presented a past treasurer's pin to Hobart Benchoff and a past secretary's pin to Donald L. Carver. The incoming president presented a past president's pin to Hershey.

NEW MICHAUX FORESTER

It was announced Tuesday that Richard R. Thorpe, district forester at the Clarion office, Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, will assume the duties of district forester of the Michaux State Forest, effective July 9, succeeding William F. Vanidestine, who is being transferred to Bloomsburg as forester of District 20.

LAWYER FROM CARLISLE MUST PAY $10 FINE

A Superior Court rule that if two cars are going down the road, one after the other, the one in front must be speeding if the one in back is speeding, else there would be a collision, has led to Attorney Harold S. Irwin Jr., Carlisle, being fined $10 and costs by the Adams County court.

State Policeman Ronald Prough on March 29 on the new Route 15 bypass followed two cars for five miles, clocking them at 66 miles per hour in a 50-mile-an-hour zone. The car Officer Prough was following consistently stayed five car lengths ahead of the police vehicle and the car ahead of that vehicle also stayed exactly the same distance ahead.

Prough arrested both drivers for speeding.

ORDERED TO PAY

Attorney Irwin appealed the charge, and appeared for a hearing before county court.

Tuesday the Adams County court handed down its opinion finding the attorney guilty and directing he forward $10 and costs to the clerk of courts here.

At the hearing, Prough testified as to the speed. So did the man he was immediately following, Charles Henry Wandell. Wandell also testified that Irwin stayed exactly the same distance ahead of him throughout the entire period.

Irwin argued that in Commonwealth vs. Mummert in 1960 Judge Anderson of York County held that to convict a driver of violating the speed limit it is necessary for police to time the vehicle for at least one-fourth mile without any other vehicle intervening between the timing officer and the vehicle being timed.

CITE '54 CASE

The Adams County court however found that in 1954 in Commonwealth versus Coldsmith the state Superior Court held that it would not agree with the York County court and stated as a rule:

"If the evidence reveals that the officer had a clear veiw and could see that the gap between both vehicles remained the same for a sustained period, there is no reason why it cannot be concluded that the front car was exceeding the speed limit, or else it would have been struck from the rear."

BOROUGH WILL FILL VACANCY

The Bonneauville borough council Tuesday evening announced that two vacancies existing on the municipal authority board will be filled at the July meeting and were informed that no reply has been received for request for application to the state for sewer aid.

The police department reported collection of $60 in fines in May for three charges of disorderly conduct, three speeding violations and one stop sign violation.

The treasurer, Mrs. Marcia Staub, reported a treasury balance of $952.10 in the general fund, $497.14 in the light fund and $1,456.11 in the highway fund. A $3,000 certificate of deposit also was included in the report. Bills in the amount of $155.85 were authorized for payment and included $80 for police salary. Five salvage yard permits were issued for an income of $50, and one peddlers license was reported at $1.

Richard Neiderer, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Total Lunar Eclipse To Be Seen Tonight

MOUNT DESERT, Maine (AP)—Moonwatchers expect an excellent view of a reddish glow in the sky tonight.

It will be the first of two total eclipses of the moon this year.

Many parts of the world will view the phenomenon, but one of the finest vantage points is expected to be on 1,530 - foot Cadillac Mountain on the island of Mount Desert off Maine.

The eclipse begins at 5:48 p.m. EST when the moon enters the earth's penumbra — the almost invisible shadow of the earth. Totality will last from 7:16 p.m. to 8:57 p.m. The moon will leave the penumbra at 11:14 p.m.

The next total lunar eclipse comes Dec. 18.

50 U. S. Soldiers Arrive In Thailand

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—About 50 soldiers of the U.S. 25th Division were reliably reported Tuesday to have arrived in Thailand to help stockpile military equipment due here this week.

Military informants said another 60 to 70 men were expected to follow for the operation, described as a buildup of American strength in this strategic Southeast Asian country.

Five U.S. ships carrying trucks, armored personnel carriers, signal equipment, ammunition and construction gear are en route to Thailand. The first vessel is scheduled to dock in Bangkok tonight.

Sucked From Plane; Falls To His Death

LEWISVILLE, Tex. (AP)—An Air Force navigator was sucked out of his B52 when a hatch door blew off Tuesday. He was not wearing a parachute and fell six miles to his death.

The body of Capt. Richard Carroll, 35, was located on a farm northwest of here during a search by a posse of state and county officers.

DENY ENTRANT

McALLEN, Tex. (AP) — The American Legion post chapter has refused to admit an entrant in their annual bathing beauty review who wanted to wear a topless bathing suit.

Blanche Doster, executive secretary of the June 3 review, declined to identify the would-be contestant.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service has approved a $447,960 grant for a $1,344,536 project to construct a four-story wing at the Dauphin County Home and Hospital, Harrisburg, Pa., Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., announced Tuesday.

BIG DAMAGES

Because of financial difficulties, the plaintiff was forced to renegotiate its contract with C.I.T. and entered into a new payment schedule Oct. 31, 1963, the claim relates.

On or about May 18, 1964, the complaint states, defendants Ward Industries and Bankers Commercial demanded the plaintiff resume payments for laundry equipment, but Bizzy Bee refused.

These two defendant firms, says the plaintiff, subsequently threatened "that acting in concert with C.I.T. Corp. they would take such steps as would force the plaintiff to use their equipment and services or else be driven out of business."

The suit charges that the defendants agreed among themselves about May 15, 1964, to take such steps to force the plaintiff to deal with all three of them.

CIRCULATED STORIES

Ward Industries allegedly obtained a writ of replevin directing the Adams County sheriff's office to seize equipment of Bizzy Bee and this action was in furtherance of the conspiracy, says the plaintiff.

The suit, filed by Attorney Lewis H. Markowitz, said the defendants have harassed the plaintiff and circulated stories about the closing of the plant.

The plaintiff asks for a jury trial and also for the court to issue a preliminary injunction against the defendants from interfering with the business of Bizzy Bee.

The firm claims loss of business and violations of the Sherman Act entitle it to the damages and that the conspiracy was malicious.

LEAVES SOON FOR NEW POST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has never known defeat, flies to war-torn South Viet Nam soon to take over as U.S. ambassador. He is expected to provide a single tight and unified command over U.S. civilian and military efforts.

The soldier - diplomat was named to the Saigon post Tuesday by President Johnson after the resignation of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. Taylor plans to leave for his new post in 10 days or two weeks.

Johnson's selection of Taylor for the hot spot assignment won strong approval on Capitol Hill. Democrats and Republicans joined in predicting overwhelming Senate confirmation.

In South Viet Nam, Taylor will have under him two old friends in key spots—Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland as U.S. military commander and veteran diplomat U. Alexis Johnson as his political deputy.

POND OWNERS

elbow and can still see your fingers you don't have enough fertilizer in the pond," said the specialist. The fertilizer also promotes growth of plankton on which the fish feed.

Bass and blue gill in the proper proportions are ideal stock for farm ponds, Fish Warden Paul Martin Jr., York, said. But they pose a problem. If the pond isn't fished enough the blue gill grow so numerous they eat all the bass eggs and so eventually there are no more bass in the pond.

MUSKRAT PROBLEMS

The fish warden told the group they could give their excess catch of fish to friends and relatives—but they must give the friend a slip of paper stating that he has been given the fish and what they are where they came from and when or he might run into trouble with the law, since he would have fish with no license.

Henry Mattax of the Soil and Water Conservation Service took up the problems of muskrats. Box wire treated with asphalt about six inches under the surface helps discourage the muskrats. Another system involves use of amachine that cuts a trench three inches wide by up to 10 feet in depth. The trench is then filled with concrete or asphalt to halt the muskrat from digging clear through the wall of the pond and emptying it.

READING, Pa. (AP)—Three parked trailers were set ablaze by boiling oil which leaked from a tank truck in nearby Princetown Tuesday. Eight fire companies put out the flames with water and foam. The leaking oil also caused an explosion that shattered windows at two homes.

H. F. Wolford, owner of Oley Constructors Inc., said that he and an employe, Mel Unger, were heating the oil in the tank truck on his lot. He estimated damages at $20,000.

DEATHS

Mrs. Hermann Singer

Mrs. Hermann Singer, 75, a native of Littlestown and former Hanover resident, died Thursday in Wasserburg, Bavaria, Germany.

She was the widow of Hermann Singer and had resided in recent years with a son, Dr. J. E. Singer, Soyen, Germany. Previously she made her home with another son, Hermann F. Singer, York. Mrs. Singer was the former Rebecca Little, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Washington E. Little. In addition to her sons she is also survived by four grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. John Y. Burgard, York. The body will be cremated and the ashes interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Hanover.

Pittinger Sr., Hanover; a stepdaughter, Mrs. James Watson, Milesburg; 31 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Wetzel Funeral Home, Hanover. His pastor, Rev. George E. Stauffer, will officiate, assisted by his former pastor, Rev. Dr. Paul Levi Foulk, retired. Interment will be in Rest Haven Cemetery, Hanover.

Andrew F. Peters Sr.

Andrew F. Peters Sr., 72, Fayetteville R. 3, was dead on arrival at the Chambersburg Hospital Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. He suffered a heart attack.

He was born in Fairfield, a son of the late John A. and Minnie Kepperly Peters. He was employed at Wilson College. He was a member of the American Legion, Shippensburg; BPOE No. 600, Chambersburg Rod & Gun Club, Mercersburg Sportsmen's Association and the Chambersburg Saddle Club.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mildred Laughlin Peters; two sons and two daughters: Bernard A. and Andrew F. Jr., both of Fayetteville; Mrs. Grace McKnight, Chambersburg, and Mrs. Linda M. Freet, Fayetteville; 18 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; two brothers and six sisters: John, Eugene, Mrs. Mary Fogal, all of Chambersburg; Mrs. Boyd Rosenberry, Roxbury; Mrs. Wilbur Diehl and Mrs. Mark Hoch, both of Chambersburg; Mrs. James Hoch, Camp Hill, and Mrs. Paul Rosenberry, Chambersburg R. 4.

Funeral services at the Barbour Funeral Home in Chambersburg Friday morning at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Robert E. Reasey in charge. Burial will be made in Norland Cemetery there.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Police Asked To Aid Tourist Family

Sometimes tourism brings family problems to borough police.

At 9:15 Tuesday night a Seattle, Wash., tourist contacted local police. The father said he and his son had had a disagreement and during the argument the 18-year-old had left the family car. Police were asked to locate the young man and tell him at which motel his parents were staying. Since the youth had $100 in the pocket of his jeans it was not known if he would simply return to Seattle or not.

Police didn't find their man, nor did they look long. At 10 o'clock they were notified by the father that the son had returned and "all was ok."

Girl Rescues Boy From Marsh Creek: George Miller, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Buford avenue, was rescued Thursday afternoon at Marsh Creek Heights by Miss Sara Agnes Stallsmith, daughter of former Burgess and Mrs. Wilbur J. Stallsmith, E. Middle St., after the boy had tumbled into seven feet of water in front of the Miller cottage. The lad clung to the edge of the rowboat with which he had been playing until Miss Stallsmith dashed from the cottage in response to cries for help. The local girl, who is a good swimmer, plunged in the water and assisted the Miller boy, who is unable to swim, into the boat. While running to the water's edge Miss Stallsmith cut a bad gash in her right heel. Miss Rebecca Swisher, Baltimore street, member of a swimming party with which Miss Stallsmith was spending the afternoon, treated the injury.

Today's Talk

MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

Money never bought so much as it does today. The dollar may not be worth so much, but what it buys is what was not available a quarter of a century ago. A nickel or dime today buys the news of the world. The price of a lunch buys a seat to the movies that wasn't even dreamed about when our parents were young.

Before the development of the automobile, the amount we have to pay for a car today was what was often spent for a trip abroad. Now the money spent for a car means a new lease on health, expanded knowledge of one's own country, an increased appreciation of beauty and contacts that were never before made possible.

The variety of money purchases offered us today is so much greater than ever before that we wonder what shall be new next — many things that would now challenge the imagination!

Things may cost more than they did a few years ago, but they mean more to one because they represent more sacrifice and more savings, and therefore are appreciated to a greater degree. Also the average person earns more, because he has learned to produce more. And this has added to his responsibility. Also it has taught him to save, lending dignity to his position as a citizen, making him more self-dependent.

Thirty-five or fifty cents today will buy one of the scores of classics, in neatly printed "paperbacks" as well as many of the more popular ones of current creation. No need for anyone to be ignorant these days, or uninformed. And millions of people now have the opportunity to hear the great singers, speakers, and marvelous musical productions in their own homes, no matter where located, by means of the TV, radio or hi-fi.

Never has so much been bequeathed to so many for so little. Never has the opportunity for service, on the part of us all, been so great. Never has freedom meant more, never has its preservation been so important.

Just Folks

UNDERSTANDING

He had suffered pain and knew
All his friend was going through.

He had known long weeks of dread
Tossing on a sleepless bed.

He had watched that narrow hall
For a friend to come to call.

So he journeyed from his way
Just a cheery word to say.

Stooped from time to time to see
What the sufferer's need might be.

Others left him there alone,
Pain like that they'd never known.

Only those who've lonely been
Know what loneliness can mean.

Sympathy is but a word,
Save by memories it's stirred.

Who would share another's woe
Must its hurt and anguish know.

TEACHER IS INDUCTED AS ROTARY HEAD

James L. Rhoades, Littlestown High School teacher, was installed as new president of the local Rotary Club at the dinner meeting held on Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel.

Paul E. King, a past president of the club, installed the following, in addition to Mr. Rhoades: Vice president, Fred W. King; secretary, Luther W. Ritter; assistant secretary, Charles E. Rabenstine; treasurer, Edward H. Leister; sergeant at arms, William Hendricks; board of directors, Fred King, Edward Leister, Richard W. Staley, Roy L. Koontz, Charles W. Slusser, Luther D. Snyder and James Rhoades; song leader, Charles Rabenstine, and club bulletin editor, L. Robert Snyder.

JAMES L. RHOADES

Mr. King was introduced by Clarence J. Krichten Jr., chairman of the club service committee. He prefaced the installation with brief remarks, when he listed the objectives of Rotary. Secretary Ritter presented the past president's pin and the gavel, as a momento, to Roy Koontz, retiring president. President Rhoades received the president's pin from Mr. Koontz, followed by remarks of acceptance from the former. The retiring president listed the highlights of the club during his term in office, when he pointed out that the club had an average attendance in the district of 95.43 per cent and stood first in monthly district attendance twice.

Walter F. Crouse gave a report on proceedings at the annual convention of Rotary International which he and Mrs. Crouse attended June 7-11 in Toronto, Canada. Over 14,000 Rotarians were present at the convention. Visiting Rotarians introduced were: Ira Bare, Olio, Mich.; Ober Herr, Westminster, and the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith, Hanover.

The club will meet next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at the Littlestown Fish and Game Farm, near town. Arrangements are in charge of the program committee, composed of Fred King, chairman; Frank E. Basehoar, Lester F. Berkheimer, Francis I. Gerrick, Clarence R. Reck and P. Emory Weaver.

Lemmon Family's Reunion Is Held

The fourth annual gathering of the Upton Lemmon family was held on Sunday in St. James United Church of Christ grave, along the Harney Rd. Approximately 50 persons were in attendance. Basket meals were enjoyed.

WILL CONDUCT PAPER DRIVE

Explorer Post No. 84 will conduct a paper drive in the eastern half of the community, including the east side of N. and S. Queen Sts., this evening. The drive will begin at 5:30 p.m. and the post committeemen will be drivers. Those wishing to donate papers and who live out of town are requested to contact any Explorer. The committee for this activity consists of Terry Redding, chairman, Raymond Miller and Dennis Wastler.

Advisor Stanley F. Frock presided at the post business meeting on Monday evening at the Community Center. Communications were read from the Pennsylvania Railroad on the officers of a trip to the New York World's Fair, the "Strengthen American Heritage" program and participation in a parade at Dover.

These matters will be discussed further at the officers meeting next Monday. Visitors present were five boys from the Hoffman Home For Children, near town; two are eligible for the post and three for Boy Scout Troop No. 84, and they toured the building.

The Explorers will meet next Monday at 7 p.m. at the Community Center when Associate Advisor Lee Krout will be in charge of a canoeing demonstration and Advisor Frock will be in charge of water front safety.

A meeting of the post committee was held on Monday night at the home of Committeeman Luther W. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive. It was decided that Boy Scout Troop and are Explorers will attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree on Saturday, July 18, at Valley Forge. Tickets for the bus must be secured no later than Monday, July 6, from Committeeman Howard Bowman or Advisor Frock.

Mrs. Mabel Rittase, Littlestown, right, immediate past president of the Pennsylvania Fraternal Order of Eagles Ladies' Auxiliaries, is shown as she receives a check for $4,350 from Mrs. Joseph Parrett, state FOE Auxiliaries secretary, at the recent state convention in Scranton. The money, which was raised by 116 auxiliaries in Pennsylvania, will go to the Max Baer Heart Fund, which was Mrs. Rittase's project for her 1963-64 term of office.

BOROUGH ASKS NEW TIME DATE FOR AUTHORITY

Littlestown Borough Council Tuesday evening adopted an ordinance to extend the life of the municipal authority for an additional 50 years, pending approval by the secretary of the commonwealth, to fiance the water system improvement plan. The extension will be effective, if approved, through 2014. The original ordinance was established in 1940.

The borough transferred $25,000 from the water fund to the authority to begin improvements to the water system by installing larger lines in the center of town, drilling new wells and erecting a 350,000-gallon storage tank behind the municipal building.

James M. Herring was reappointed to the authority for five years from July 9, 1964, and Samuel E. Renner was reappointed to serve for five years from July 9, 1965.

CONTRACTORS TO MEET

The building committee tentatively set July 14 for a meeting with local contractors to establish the foundation for adoption of a building code. The code is expected to incorporate the various recommendations of the National Fire Underwriters in establishing greater fire protection in new constructon withn the borough.

The street committee was instructed to obtain prices from contractors, and inform property owners, for the in stallation of streets and curbing preparatory to construction of Cemetery St., expected to begin August 1. The committee specified areas on the south side of the street from the first alley east on S. Queen St. to the Mt. Carmel Cemetery property. The committee also reported that streets in other areas of the borough will be patched as needed.

NO PARKING RULES

The borough solicitor was instructed to preparae a "No Parking" ordinance in which the safety committee recommends no parking on the north side of East and West Myrtle Sts. to the first alley east and west of North Queen St.; the North side of Monarch St. from S. Queen to the end of the street; and the North side of Boyer St. to the first alley beyond M St.

Council postponed construction of a well covering pending further investigation and authorized McDermitt, Inc., Gettysburg, contractor, to proceed with the installation of the storage vault in the basement of the building. Members discussed repairs to park benches and painting the pavilion in Crouse Park. The tree trimming program will be continued next year after estimates from nurserymen are obtained by the committee.

SELL TRUCKS

Joseph Shadle was high bidder at $200 for purchase of a Chevrolet 1½-ton truck and Edward Kowalyack's bid of $35 was accepted for a Ford 1½-ton pickup truck.

Council voted to contribute $100 to the Little League and specified that a financial statement be submitted at the close of the current year's program. The contribution will be taken from the $750 contingency fund set up by council in the budget for recreational and civic aid to the community.

Borough Manager Roger J. Keefer was authorized to purchase state and national flags and stands for the mayor's office. He reported June 1 treasury balances as: General, $24,386.76; water, $26,434.26; sewer, $33,543.21; meter, $21,117.20; highway aid, $11,279.78.

Council approved the payment of bills from the general fund, $2,910.92; water, $26,665.29; sewer, $696.03. Receipts were water, $14,500 and sewer, $13,500.

President Howard Myers was in charge of the meeting, which adjourned at 11 o'clock.

Littlestown Little League

A "no contest" was ruled in Tuesday evening's action in a game involving the Indians and Cardinals as both teams are battling to stay off the bottom of the league.

In the fourth frame of the game, the umpire ruled the encounter no contest because of an infraction of a rule. However, the game was continued and the Cardinals finished in a 10-6 lead. A special meeting is being called for this evening to rule on the decision. The ruling will also affect any further games in which a similar play is involved.

Troop To Camp At Natural Dam

The annual week of camping at Natural Dam for Boy Scout Troop No. 84 will take place June 27 through July 4. The group will leave town at 8 a.m. on Saturday from the Community Center. Each Scout will receive a detailed letter on the camping. C. Aaron Rohrbaugh will be the camp director and U. Ray Study will be camp cook. The daily activities will be in charge of the troop leaders and assistants. Parents may visit the camp on Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. A program will be held around a counsel fire and parents and friends are invited to attend.

Twenty-two members of the troop went swimming at Natural Dam on Monday evening. They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Edgar A. Wolfe, Assistants Victor L. Reynolds and Andrew Gregg and L. D. Snyder, institutional representative.

SGT. ALVIN YORK IS "CRITICAL"

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — World War I hero Sgt. Alvin York has been placed on the critical list at Veterans Hospital here as the result of pneumonia in his right lung.

"He has developed pneumonia and his blood pressure has fallen," said a hospital spokesman. "This may be due to a blood clot in the lung, which he has had before, or a blood stream infection. He is a sick man."

Until pneumonia developed Tuesday, York's doctors were beginning to hint that he might soon return to his home in tiny Pall Mall, Tenn., about 140 miles northeast of here. The 76-year-old medal of honor winner was rushed here June 19 after suffering a recurrence of internal bleeding.

CULP HURLS ONE-HITTER TO BEAT CUBS 9-0

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Culp has pitched his way back into the Philadelphia Phillies' starting rotation. All it took was a near replica of teammate Jim Bunning's perfect game.

A first-inning base on balls and Len Gabrielson's sixth-inning single came between Culp and perfection, attained two days earlier by Bunning, as the 22-year-old right-hander blanked Chicago 9-0 in the second game of a double-header Tuesday night.

No other Cub reached base against Culp, whose early season troubles cost him a front-line job on Gene Mauch's leaded pitching staff.

HAS 5 STARTERS

Mauch, thoroughly impressed after Culp's effort, announced that the National League-leading Phils will go with five starters henceforth.

"With Bunning, (Dennis) Bennett, (Art) Mahaffey and (Chris) Short working so well," the manager said, "we just haven't been able to give Ray enough work. The double-headers enabled us to use him more. Now he's pitching like he did last year."

Culp, a $100,000 bonus baby five years ago, won 14 games in 1963, his rookie season, and led Philadelphia pitchers with 176 strikeouts. He reported with a sore arm this spring, dropped five of six decisions and found himself in the bullpen.

PENNANT PLAN

But three victories—including the one-hitter—and two complete games in his last three appearances have vaulted the young Texan back into the Phils' pennant plan.

The second-game victory gave the Phils a split of the twi-nighter. Chicago took the opener 2-0 on Dick Ellsworth's five-hitter.

Second-place San Francisco divided with Cincinnati, winning 4-0 before bowing 5-4 in 11 innings. Pittsburgh defeated New York 5-1; Milwaukee beat Los Angeles 5-2 and St. Louis nipped Houston 5-4.

SANTA CLAUS IS FAVORITE

LONDON (AP) — British bookmakers have established Santa Claus as a 4-5 favorite for Saturday's Irish Sweepstakes Derby while challengers to the speedy colt continue to dwindle.

Two American colts were among several withdrawn Tuesday for the 1½-mile event at the Curragh race track, first test for Santa Claus since his victory in the Epsom Derby. It appeared the starting field would number only about 15 horses.

Baldric II and Transpose, owned by Mrs. Howell E. Jackson of the Bull Run Stud in Virginia, were the American entries pulled out. Baldric's poor showing in the Epsom Derby, also at 1½ miles, after a victory in the English 2,000 Guineas Handicap, prompted his withdrawal. Transpose had not been regarded as a likely starter.

Upper Adams Little League

The Biglerville Phillies continued their unbeaten skein Tuesday evening by downing the Yankees at Bendersville 11-6 for their fifth straight triumph.

Score by innings:

Phillies	233 210—11
Yankees	110 004— 6

Batteries: Phillies, Bucher, Gorman and Hollabaugh; Yankees, Slaybaugh and Cook.

A 19-run third inning carried the Arendtsville Pirates to a 26-1 victory over the Bendersville Braves at Arendtsville. It was the first win for the Pirates after four losses.

Three Braves' hurlers gave up a total of 21 bases on balls and nine safeties. The game was called at the end of five innings.

Score by innings:

Braves	0 0 0 0 1— 1 4
Pirates	4 3 19 0 0—26 9

Batteries: Braves, G. Lupp, G. Taylor, M. Routsong and D. Dixon; Pirates, Warrenfeltz and S. Kane.

At Biglerville the Arendtsville Cardinals kept right at the heels of the league-leaders with a 6-2 decision over the Red Sox.

John Weikert, winning pitcher, fanned eight and gave up six hits. The loser, Rick Byers, whiffed 13 and yielded five hits. Mike McGlaughlin poled two hits in three trips for the Cards. George Slaybaugh also cracked two for three for the Sox while Gary Fennell lashed a double.

Score by innings:

Cardinals	100 203—6 5
Red Sox	001 001—2 6

Batteries: Cardinals, John Weikert and Tim Kane; Red Sox, Rick Byers and Mike Haller.

New Oxford Is One-Hit Victim

The New Oxford Legion baseball team dropped a 4-0 decision to league-leading Northeastern in a York County League game Monday. Gebert, Northeastern's hurler, allowed but one hit, struck out 14 and walked one. Jerry McKim spoiled Gebert's bid for a no-hitter. John Harner, New Oxford hurler, whiffed five and walked one.

New Oxford, now 2-4 in the league, plays at Red Lion this evening and on Friday meets Glen Rock on the New Oxford field.

Score by innings:

New Oxford	0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 1 0
Northeastern	0 1 0 1 2 0 x—4 9 1

Batteries: New Oxford, Harner and Dettinger; Northeastern, Gebert and D. King.

ANGELS WIN 7TH STRAIGHT, BEST OF LOOP

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Hollywood made the movie, "Angels in the Outfield," they weren't talking about Willie Smith. All of the Angels, however, are talking about him now.

The movie was a story of the heavenly kind of angels in the outfield of the Pittsburgh Pirates. But Smith, a Los Angeles Angel, has been a devil at bat.

The pitcher turned outfielder lashed two singles and a two-run homer Tuesday night, sparking Los Angeles to a 2-0 triumph over Washington. The victory was the seventh straight for the Angels, equaling the longest winning streak in the majors this season.

HITTING SPREE

It also marked the second consecutive night Smith won games with his bat. His pinch-hit single the night before drove in the tie-breaking run in a 5-2 victory over the Senators.

The 25-year-old lefty was a pitcher until Manager Bill Rigney decided Smith deserved a trial as a hitter. Rigney now believes there's never been anyone more deserving.

Smith reached the majors last year with Detroit. He pitched in 11 games, gaining a 1-0 record and a 4.50 earned run average. The Angels acquired him April 29 in a trade for Julio Navarro.

IN CLEANUP SPOT

As a southpaw hurler this season, Smith has a poor 1-4 record in 14 relief appearances and one start but has a respectable 2.81 ERA.

When Smith was inserted into the line-up for his hitting, Rigney didn't fool around. The manager placed him in right field and made him the No. 4 hitter. Smith's performance Tuesday night rocketed his average 40 points to .319. He has two home runs and 10 runs batted in for 47 times at bat.

His pinch-hitting record is even more amazing. He has seven hits in 14 chances, with five of the hits coming in his last seven tries.

That's pretty heavenly in Rigney's book.

Elsewhere in the AL Tuesday night, Baltimore nipped New York 9-8, Chicago blanked Boston 2-0, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 6-2 and Detroit trampled Kansas City 9-3 after losing 2-1.

TWINS SIGN FOUR

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Dave Harvey, Bob Price and identical twins Jim and John Cevcik of the Missouri Tigers, runnersup to Minnesota in the NCAA baseball championships, have been signed to professional contracts by the Minnesota Twins.

The collegiate stars, all of whom are to report immediately to the Twins' Melbourne, Fla., farm in the Florida Rookie League, were signed for substantial bonuses, the club said Tuesday. No contract figures were given.

Optimist Boys' League

Two runs in the bottom of the fourth inning gave the Warriors their first win of the season as they turned back the Yankees 4-3, Tuesday evening.

Mike Wolo pounded out a pair of safeties including a triple to pace the winner's attack. Dean Benson blasted the same number of blows for the Yankees. He banged a triple early in the game and came back with a double in the sixth to spark a two-run rally.

The Exchange Club spotted the Elks three runs in the top of the first inning and then kept pecking away to take a 6-3 decision Tuesday evening.

Steve Montforte crashed a long home run over the centerfield fence with a teammate aboard for the Elks in the openig frame.

Dave Eden and Tim Fazenbaker each rapped a pair of hits for the Exchange, one of Eden's blows going for a double.

Jim Ritchie turned in several outstanding fielding plays for the Elks.

Gettysburg Little League

The Glenn L. Bream team snapped a four-game losing streak by squeezing out a 5-1 win over the Gettysburg National Bank Tuesday evening behind the pitching of first-game performer Art Eyler.

The Breammen tallied a pair of runs in the second inning when, with the bases loaded, Mike Streett walked to force home Randy Thurley and Eyler drew a free pass to send in Jeff Nace. Singles by Tony Strickland, Bruce Hill and Nace and a long double by Larry Wishard produced three more runs for the winners in the fifth frame.

The National Bank tallied its lone score in the top of the third. Bob Gantz got on via an error and scored on Jim Williams' single to short right.

Williams paced the Bankers' attack with a pair of hits for three trips to the plate and Nace turned in the same performance for the Breammen. Tim Bollinger, who needed help from Barge Donmoyer, is charged with the loss.

Frank Bertaina showed the Indians who was chief.

Although the fast-balling Elmira hurler saw his Eastern League scoreless streak tripped at 23 innings, he retained enough of his artistry to pitch the Pioneers to a 5-2 win over the Charleston Indians Tuesday night.

York defeated the Williamsport Mets, 13-3, to stay one-half game in front of the Pioneers in their battle for fourth place. Those were the only games scheduled.

CLAY RETURNS HOME TUESDAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay returned home Tuesday night from a five-week African tour with a weighty problem—what to do with a 3,500-pound stone slab, once part of an Egyptian pyramid.

He received the stone as a gift from the Egyptian government.

Clay said that the stone had been part of the Giza pyramid and that this was the first time that the Egyptian government ever had presented a portion of such a structure to an individual.

Clay said the slab is being brought here by ship and is expected to arrive next month.

When asked what he was going to do with it, he looked puzzled and replied, "Well, I might look at it for awhile and then give it to a museum or I might make a couch out of it and put it in the living room of my pretty home."

On being asked if he was glad to be home, Clay said, "Oh man, yeah."

ALL-AMERICA GRID CONTEST ON SATURDAY

By MARVIN R. PIKE

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The East and West teams in Saturday's All-America football game each have a problem that can be summed up in one word: Offense.

The East's pass-receivers haven't been able to hang on to the low, bullet passes of Miami's George Mira.

The West, armed with new plays, appeared to be slow in making them work.

WORK OUT AT 92

Despite those problems, 57 of 60 of the nation's top collegiate player of 1963 chosen to perform in the fourth-annual game gave their all Tuesday in 1-hour, 45-minute workouts under a broiling sun that sent the temperature soaring to 92 degrees. None was affected by the heat.

Coach Pete Elliott of Illinois decided to work on the East's aerial game. He had Mira rolling out for passes to the sidelines. Mira, named as the tentative starting quarterback for the East, created a problem for his receivers with his low, fast tosses.

Cornell's Gary Wood, a dangerous runner, hurled a much softer pass that was gathered in more often.

WEST DULLS TOO

Meanwhile, the East's third quarterback, Boston College's Jack Concannon, sat out the practice with a pulled left hamstring muscle. He is a doubtful starter.

On another of the University of Buffalo's fields, where the West drilled, Coach Bob Devaney of Nebraska passed out new plays and then perspired as his players sought to carry out their assignments. They finally began to click, but not until near the end of the workout.

Included were plays featuring the aerials of Baylor's Don Trull, rated the top collegiate passer in the last two seasons, and Nebraska's Dennis Claridge. Both have been named as possible starters for the West, although Trull seems to have the edge.

NEW BOOK ON LBJ

Wm. S. White Is No Election-Year Boswell His Johnson Is Merely A Professional In Action

AN ELECTION YEAR without three or four "campaign biographies" of as many White House hopefuls is unthinkable. That form of political literature has been a characteristic of American presidential elections since the days of Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too."

One of the best and most literary biographies of this character was written by none other than the famous author, Nathaniel Hawthorne. His President, Franklin Pierce, is perhaps the only winner who today is less famous than the author who helped him win.

On the other hand the presidential aspirant who most consistently lost the race enjoyed one of the longest political biographies — Henry Clay, whose political life, letters and virtues were embalmed in two heavy volumes.

Leonard Wood, who had a burning urge toward the White House in 1920, rated two widely read biographical works designed toward that end. He did not even achieve the nomination. But the two books were potent enough that Wood led the field through the first four ballots, never fell lower than second place. Deadlock resulted, with Warrn G. Harding the compromise and winner. As of convention time, Harding had no political Boswell.

THERE ARE THOSE who will consider William S. White's newest book, "The Professional: Lyndon B. Johnson," (Houghton, Mifflin Co., $5.00) a 1964 campaign biography. They will be wrong.

Mr. White's smooth, analytical, often detached, but always polite book is not a campaign biography for the simple reason that it is not a biography. It is a series of essays in which Mr. White reveals his own concepts of what constitutes brilliant professionalism in politics with Lyndon B. Johnson as the exemplar.

It is readily admitted that the volume can and may serve as a full, fair equivalent of a campaign biography; and perhaps more effectively than would be a conventionally authorized "Life." At the same time Mr. White is a highly respected journalist and long-time, seasoned observed. His views of what constitutes a top-flight political professional becomes a significant document in its own right.

IN WHITE'S opinion, the only way in which a professional can stay in the game for any length of time is to adhere meticulously to the rules.

A major rule holds that one should never attempt destruction. A mild, humiliation, such as a pinking pin prick, may be administered even to a colleague; but neither an opposing party, or clique, not even a bitterly hostile, individual opponent should be beaten down in harsh, unforgiving defeat whence he cannot arise.

LBJ has made progress under this live-and-let-live rule. But should a violent opponent, such as the late Senator McCarthy, of Wisconsin, appear to be travelling happily along a path of self-destruction, Lyndon feels no sense of compulsion toward his salvation. Indeed, in the McCarthy case, LBJ played the patient waiting game until McCarthy had reached the point of no return before a single obstacle was put in his path. "In due time" is a favorite, precautionary phrase with the President.

Johnson's techniques in negotiating the passage of difficult legislation are set forth with exceptional clarity. At the same time, White never tries to delude himself or the reader into thinking Johnson seeks the ideal. The most he hopes for is a formula that will prove workable and acceptable to the most.

IN A SPIRIT of good taste, Mr. White obviously tries to avoid comparisons with the late President Kennedy. But at times he cannot avoid it. Certainly, at no time is the author invidious. There are, nevertheless, some occasional passages that disciples of the Kennedy clan will read with distinct disfavor.

In White's opinion, Johnson sees all politics as a contest, and "like nearly all great political professionals, like nearly all true veterans . . . is a powerful, rentless antagonist . . . reaching for the jugular vein with a hand infinitely practiced and absolutely determined. But when the contest is over, he does not hate, nor does he readily understand political hatred in others. Malice . . . offfends his sense of adulthood far more than his sense of ethics."

Though it will do until a campaign biography comes along, Mr. White's excellent, timely tome is actually a case study and handbook on how to succeed in high level politics.

FARM CALENDAR

In order to prevent animal fertilizer poisoning, the following suggestions are offered by the Farm and Home Safety Committee of the Pennsylvania State University: keeps bags of fertilizer, open or unopened, out of the reach of animals; burn empty bags, because there may be enough fertilizer remaining in them to harm animals; when spillage of fertilizer occurs, clean up the area immediately or if in a field, spread the fertilizer around.

Summer Heat Hard on Farm Equipment—While winter weather may be most damaging, summer sun and heat also shortens the life of farm equipment, say extension agricultural engineers at the Pennsylvania State University. As equipment becomes more "sophisticated" and expensive, the more it pays to keep it under cover when not in use.

Larger Pots for Plants Outdoors—Here's a gardening suggestion for your growing house plants. Extension flower specialists at the Pennsylvania State University say, when moving house plants outdoors, double-pot them in larger clay pots lined with peat moss. This gives them a topple-resistant base and helps them to hold constant moisture during the summer months.

Pennsylvania Cut Flower Production is High — Pennsylvania ranks third in the nation as a cut flower and potted plant producer. Alvi Voigt, extension economist at the Pennsylvania State University, says that ornamental nursery stock production has almost tripled in recent years. Pennsylvania may become third in nursery stock production also.

Duke Of Windsor Marks Birthday

PARIS (AP) — The Duke of Windsor ushered in his 70th birthday Tuesday with a small dinner party at Maxim's that lasted until after midnight.

His supporters in Britain used the anniversary to call again on the royal family to forget the past and officially recognize the duke's American wife.

Marking his birthday quietly, the duke slept late and spent most of the day at his desk. A secretary said he was working on personal accounts and correspondence.

Another private dinner party, at the house of friends, was scheduled tonight.

With the duke at their Paris mansion was his wife, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, who was a divorcee when he gave up the British throne in 1936 to marry her. She is 68.

REPORTS GAINS IN CIVIL RIGHTS FOR SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's civil rights chief has reported some "spectacular changes" in treatment of Negro servicemen in areas around military bases.

Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights, indicated he expects the new civil rights bill to help in scoring further gains against racial discrimination affecting servicemen.

"Our people probably use more public accommodations than any other segment of the population," Fitt said in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press.

PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS

He referred here to a section of the new bill providing remedies for persons barred on racial or religious grounds from such public accommodations as hotels and motels, restaurants, or places of entertainment.

The Pentagon's year-old drive to eradicate discrimination against servicemen has relied largely upon persuasion, with base commanders generally dealing with local officials on a case-by-case basis.

"There's been very gratifying progress," Fitt said, "but a good deal remains to be done."

He stressed that in using the word spectacular to describe some gains so far, he meant instances where rigid patterns of segregation had been broken even to a limited extent for servicemen.

DECISION IN SNAVELY CASE IS DUE SOON

LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—Judge G. Thomas Gates says he will issue a written opinion on whether James N. Snavely, an opponent of Bible reading in the local schools, was under duress when he was arrested and fined on state dog law charges.

No date was set for an opinion, but Judge Gates indicated it would be filed within the next few weeks.

Attorney L. E. Meyer contended at a hearing in Common Pleas Court Monday that Snavely's nighttime arrest last Feb. 14 on two-year-old charges of not licensing his dogs constituted "harassment" for his stand.

SNAVELY NOT THERE

Snavely, who has filed suit in federal court against the Cornwall-Lebanon joint suburban school system for fostering Bible reading in classrooms, was not present at the hearing.

Dist. Atty. Alvin Lewis Jr. agreed with the defense that Snavely's arrest was illegal, but added that according to the record Snavely voluntarily paid $53 in fines and costs.

Lewis added that his office, in handling the case for the Commonwealth, was "bound by the record," and that the record indicated Snavely was "acting voluntarily" when he paid the fines and costs.

Snavely contended at the time of his arrest that he was told by Justice of the Peace Mary Spallone of Swatara Twp. that he had a choice of "paying the fines and costs or going to jail."

Meyer argued that his client was free on $400 bail at the time of his arrest.

DEATH

EUSTIS, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Leon Sibley Haire, who said she was 116 years old and once a spy for Gen. Robert E. Lee, died Friday. There are no known survivors. Mrs. Haire said she was born in Richmond, Va., April 19, 1848, and lived two doors from Gen. Lee's family. She said she did undercover work for the general when both Confederate and Union troops were in the Richmond area.

Electric Map At National Museum Is One Of Most Popular Attractions Here

Joseph Louis Rosensteel, 110 King St., at 49, is one of the few Gettysburg residents who can confidently look forward to their work serving the public for years after they are gone.

JOSEPH L. ROSENSTEEL

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the "Electric Map" which Rosensteel added to his parents' museum near the National Cemetery shortly after his graduation from Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg.

The map, seen by thousands of persons in the last quarter of a century, soon grew to be such an attraction that it was, and is, known throughout the nation, and much of the world.

Basically the "Electric Map" is a large relief map of the battle area plus electric lights which can be illuminated to show the movement of the troops.

The original map has been replaced with a larger map and an improved method of presentation within the last two years so that those seeing the new map today find it an even more interesting method of presentation of the story of the battle than the original creation.

THREE FEATURES

Three things contribute to the map:

Rosensteel's writing skill, first revealed when he was an editor and columnist of the "Mountain Echo," student publication at Mount Saint Mary's College. The script for the Electric Map is one of his finest pieces.

His voice, which not only makes the map story live, but which has caused him to be frequently asked to serve as a speaker or narrator. Among the major programs for which he has been a narrator over the years were "Mr. Lincoln Comes to Gettysburg," and the pageants marking the sesquicentennial of the county and the borough. He has spoken to numerous organizations throughout the eastern U. S. over the years, on Civil War matters.

GOOD LECTURER

And his knowledge of the Battlefield. That knowledge led to creation of the map. It has also made him a lecturer in demand, using the map, for Army officers. Yearly numerous officers, many from foreign countries, come here to hear Rosensteel give details of the battle on the map. By using different combinations of lights he can give a four-hour or longer lecture getting down to such fine details as maneuvers of regiments. The talk generally presented to the public lasts about a half hour.

With his father he has become over the years an acknowledged expert in relics of the Civil War. His many trips in search of authentic relics have taken him to all parts of the U. S. as part of the continuing program of the Rosensteels to add to the world's largest collection of Civil War relics presently shown at the museum.

Fishing, boating and hunting have been avocations. He has also been an active alumnus of Mount Saint Mary's.

Married to the former Margaret Malley, he is father of five children: Emily, Daniel, James, Christine and David.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Miss Joan Heiges, daughter of Dr. Donald R. Heiges, president of the Lutheran Seminary, and Mrs. Heiges, and Miss Peggy Lee Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Fox, Bendersville, have been named to the dean's list at Wittenberg University for the second semester of the 1963-64 academic year. Students must earn an academic average of 3.5 or better to be named to the list. Miss Fox earned a straight A or 4.0 average. Miss Heiges received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Wittenberg earlier this month.

National

by 1921 Pat Rosensteel had amassed sufficient relics of his own to open the National Museum on the edge of the battlefield, a 15-foot square room with a porch around four sides where visitors could look in at the displays. It has been expanded 14 times resulting in a huge two-story building that combines the museum and the priceless Rosensteel collection and the unique electric map that was born "on the bedroom floor" of young Joseph Rosensteel's room 25 years ago.

As a high school student Joe gave great thought to the manner in which he could re-enact the Battle of Gettysburg without the distractions of figures, costumes and other stage properties. He continued to work on a unique presentation through college and beyond as he spent several years in research of the battle. By the time he had reached the age of 24 he had conceived "a crazy idea" that the story could be told with hundreds of tiny electric light bulbs — the first theater-in-the-round in the area.

STORY IN LIGHTS

He drew the map, placed the lights and perfected the switchboard that controls their appearance. Each movement is portrayed in lights, considered today one of the most effective means of graphic portrayal. A 30-minute tape recording accompanies the showing, beginning with the orientation introduction, which tells viewers on any of the four sides their location on the battlefield.

The first map was shown to more than four million people during its 24 years of service, and the new map, added last April, has already set an admirable record. The first auditorium held only 200 people and was too small for today's crowds, often as many as 95 busloads of students a day in addition to adult visitors. The new auditorium, with its 30-foot square map, seats 570 people and permits 420 to stand.

The government has brought military classes, domestic and foreign, to Gettysburg for a number of years, and the first stop is the electric map, where students of military science get their bearings for the Battlefield. Many are foreign-speaking groups, usually accompanied by interpreters. The map is arranged to permit showings of every maneuver made during the three-day battle and can be presented in approximately four hours. The 30-minute lecture is designed for the public and is one of the most accurate descriptions available.

highlight of her report was the announcement that the local club was "100 per cent" in the Foundation Endowment contribution. Mrs. Glenn Guise reported for a very successful ways and means committee and Mrs. George Eberhart reported on music. Mrs. Estelle Williams reported for the notification and transportation committee. The president thanked all the committees.

APPOINTS AUDITORS

Mrs. Baker appointed Mrs. Ditchburn and Mrs. Eberhart as auditors for the treasurer's books and asked them to report at the next meeting.

Mrs. Myers reported five members including the president attended the insallation dinner of the Westminster Soroptimist Club June 15 and Dr. Gregg said seven members attend the installation dinner of Carlisle club June 15. The corresponding secretary announced greetings had been sent to the Soroptimist Club of Denison, Tex., and the Soroptimist Club of Kent, Wash.

The president at the time announced these committees:

commissioner for Boy Scouting, was named chairman for the program to be held July 16, according to tentative plans. The program will be held in the form of a campfire for the Cubs, Scouts and Explorers and their parents, with patriotic songs, stunts and speeches scheduled.

District Scout Field Executive Stanley C. Rogers announced there are still five openings for Scouts or Explorers and one for a leader in the Canadian canoe trip.

August 15 and 16 were set as the tentative dates for the annual father and son camporee.

David Houck, advisor for Explorer Post 70, Arendtsville, reported on the recent four-day trip by his post to the New York World's Fair. He offered to tell leaders of posts planning similar trips "how to get the most at the least cost."

Reports presented on summer camp at Tuckahoe showed the program the best so far. All members of the Scout units were urged to attend the summer sessions at Tuckahoe.

New Entrance Stations To Help Tourists And Find Guides For Them; 2 Are In Use

Tourists will find it easier to obtain guides, and information about the battlefield, as a result of a new service established by the National Park.

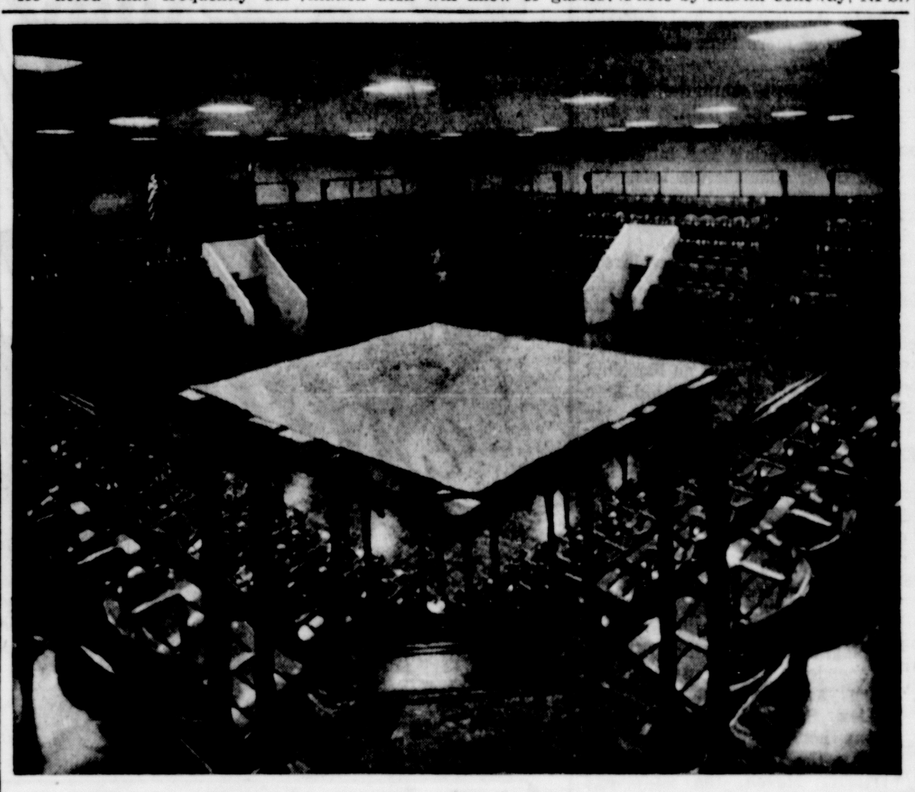

At the West End Guide Station along the Chambersburg Pike and at the South End Guide Station along the Emmitsburg Rd., Park Superintendent Kittridge A. Wing has had placed stations where park rangers will be on duty seven days a week to answer questions of tourists and arrange guide service for them.

He noted that frequently during the summer months all guides are absent simultaneously at guide stations and thus tourists find no one there to give information.

Also as part of the experiment, a special guide service telephone has been installed at E. Cemetery Hill. The phone is connected directly to the information desk at the Visitor Center. The Visitor Center will be kept informed by the rangers at the west and south end stations of the presence of guides, and in addition the information desk will know of guides at the Visitor Center and as a result the tourist will be able to secure a guide almost immediately.

Wing said he believes the set-up will provide for a better coordination of guide service and thus "greater visitor enjoyment and benefit." Shown is the new ranger station at the West End Guide Station.

The electric map (above) is now housed in a larger auditorium at the National Museum which today marks the 25th anniversary of its inception. The map is the product of Joseph Rosensteel, son of the proprietors, who conceived and built two, one smaller than the present piece. The Battle of Gettysburg is explained to viewers through a network of lights. (Lane Studio)

LT. SCHWARTZ IS DECORATED

Lt. Ray D. Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross D. Schwartz, E. Hanover St., Biglerville, has been decorated with the U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Sembach AB, Germany.

Lieutenant Schwartz was awarded the medal for his meritorious service as a weapons systems engineering officer in the ballistics systems division at McConnell AFB, Kan.

He s now a planning and programming officer with a unit of the U. S. Air Forces in Europe (USAFE) at Sembach. His squadron supports the USAFE mission of providing the major air contribution for defense of the NATO countries.

Schwartz, who received his B.S. degree in 1962 from Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia, entered the Air Force in June that year. He was commissioned upon completion of Officer Training School.

Expires After More Than 40 Operations

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Frank Scully, who wrote with humor about the physical pain he experienced, is dead at 71.

He had reportedly undergone more than 40 operations in the past 30 years.

His death Tuesday was attributed to a coronary occlusion.

Scully came to Hollywood as a writer for 20th Century-Fox Studios in 1932. He later was a columnist for the show business magazine Variety, as well as the author of books about illness, including "Fun in Bed."

Record Publishes Sheridan Tribute

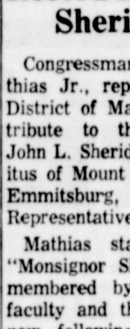

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias Jr., representing the Sixth District of Maryland, delivered a tribute to the late Monsignor John L. Sheridan, president emeritus of Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, in the House of Representatives on June 17.

Mathias stated in part that "Monsignor Sheridan will be remembered by his students and faculty and thousands of alumni now following his precepts throughout the world as a devoted priest, educator, and friend."

Excerpts from the eulogy delivered by Rt. Rev Msgr. Robert R. Kline, president of the college, on the occasion of the funeral of Monsignor Sheridan on May 21 were published in the Congressional Record.

ATTENDS SEMINAR

Professor Horst Sylvester of the economics department at Gettysburg College is among 36 college professors from throughout the United States attending a four-week seminar on contempory economics at the University of Virginia. The seminar, financed by the General Electric Company, gives the professors from schools which do not have extensive graduate training, the opportunity to keep up to date in the field of economics.

The Greenwood Hills Bible Conference will hold its first series of meetings of the season beginning at 7:30 p.m. Meetings will be held each day through Sunday, July 12. Speakers will be Robert Auld of New Zealand and David Kirk of Hamilton, Ontario. Robert Clark of Martinsburg, Pa., will conduct children's meetings.

Sunday sessions will be at 9:30 a.m., the Lord's supper; 3:30 p.m., Bible teachings; 7:30 p.m., gospel message. Weekday meetings are 9 a.m., children's meeting; 10:30 a.m., conversational Bible readings; 7:30 p.m., Bible exposition by one of the conference speakers.

The afternoons are free for rest and recreation under the direction of Tom Taylor of Hatboro, Pa., and David Good of Bridgeville, Pa.

The conference is designed to furnish aid to Sunday School teachers and all those desiring a better knowledge of the Bible. All meetings are open to the public. The conference grounds are located on Lincoln Highway between Caledonia State Park and Fayetteville.

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Some 16 000 miners of the anthracite industry, Districts 1, 7 and 9, of the United Mine Workers of America, begin their annual two-week vacation Saturday, June 27, at $80 a week, it was announced Tuesday.

CASE WORKER IS NAMED HERE

Miss Susan Brown, Upper Darby, was introduced to the Adams County Commissioners at their meeting Tuesday in the courthouse by Miss Dorothy Curtis, county Child Welfare Service secretary as the temporary case worker in the Child Welfare service office here this summer.

The commissioners had given approval some time ago for the appointment of a summertime case worker whose salary will be paid by the state. Miss Brown, who was named to the post, is a student at Pennsylvania State University.

Ronald Daley, of the William G. Johnson Co., Pittsburgh, met with the commissioners to describe the election supplies provided by his firm and their cost. The county for years has purchased election supplies from the Telegraph Press, Harrisburg.

Bills totaling $4,017.13 were approved by the commissioners for payment. The admission of a county woman to the county home was approved.

At noon the commissioners went to Harrisburg to study various types of equipment of the Addressograph company in connection with plans to install a system in the county for mechanically handling details of assessments and voting lists.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

MORE CUNNINGHAM GENEALOGY

The Cunningham genealogy is continued at this time with additional notes on the family of Robert (2) and Martha (Watt) Cunningham.

James (3) Cunningham, the fourth son and fifth child of Robert (2) and Martha (Watt) Cunningham, was born February 26, 1788 and died February 27, 1867. He (James [3] Cunningham) was married to Elizabeth Stewart (no relation of his brother, David's wife), of Frederick County, Maryland. Elizabeth (Stewart) Cunningham, like her husband, was of Scotch descent.

Seven sons were born to James (3) and Elizabeth Stewart) Cunningham as follows:

1. Alexander (4) Cunningham - born 1820 - died June 8, 1830 - aged 11 years - buried in the family plot in Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian churchyard.

7. "In memory of - Alexander Cunningham - son of James Cunningham - Died June 8th, 1830 - Aged 10 years."

4. Adams Centinel, Tuesday June 22, 1830 -

"Died, Tuesday, June 8th, the eldest son of James Cunningham, of Liberty Township, this County."

2. Robert (4) Cunningham - born 1821 - died July 20, 1824 - aged 3 years - buried in the family plot in Lower Marsh Creek burial ground.

8. "In memory of - Robert Cunningham - son of Robert Cunningham - Died August 13, 1789 - aged 5 years. - Also Robert Cunningham - son of J. (James) Cunningham - Died July 20, 1824 - Aged 3 years."

Notes:- Apparently the young son of James (3) and Elizabeth (Stewart) Cunningham was buried close to or in the same grave with his young uncle of the same name. One stone marks both graves.

3. John (4) Cunningham - born November 13, 1822 and was married to Margaret R. Scott on February 5, 1846. Margaret (Scott) Cunningham died December 14, 1892 in the 65th year of her age. They were the parents of five daughters and two sons - two of whom are interred in Lower Marsh Creek.

9. In memory of - William Scott Cunningham - son of J. and Margaret - Cunningham - Born January 31st, 1857 - Died September 3, 1863."

5. Adams Sentinel, Tuesday, September 8, 1863 -

"Died, September 3rd, 1863, in Freedom Township, this County, Willie Scott Cunningham, the son of John and M. R. Cunningham, aged 6 years, 7 months, and 3 days."

10. "In memory of - Elizabeth Stewart Cunningham - the daughter of J. and M. Cunningham - Born September 18, 1831 - Died August 15, 1863."

6. Adams Sentinel, Tuesday, August 25, 1863 -

"Died, August 15, 1863, in Freedom Township, this County, Lizzie S. Cunningham, the daughter of John and M. R. Cunningham, aged 11 years, 10 months, and 27 days."

* * *

4. David (4) Cunningham - born 1826 - died May 6, 1828 - in the second year of his age - buried in the family plot in Lower Marsh Creek churchyard.

11. "In memory of - Susanna Cunningham - daughter of Robert Cunningham - Died November 14, 1778 - Aged 1 year. - Also - David Cunningham - son of J. Cunningham - Died May 6, 1828 - Aged 2 years."

Note:- Again a record of two deaths on one stone - Susanna (3) Cunningham, the infant daughter of Robert (2) and Martha (Watt) Cunningham and David (4) Cunningham, the son of James (4) and Elizabeth (Stewart) Cunningham.

5. James (4) Cunningham - born 1828 - died May 12, 1854 - buried in Lower Marsh Creek graveyard.

12. "In memory of - James Cunningham - son of E. Cunningham - Died May 12, 1854 - Aged 26 years."

7. Adams Sentinel, Monday, May 22, 1854 -

"Died, May 12, 1854, in Freedom Township, this County, Mr. James Cunningham, Jr., aged about 26 years."

6. Francis (4) Cunningham, the sixth son of James (3) and Elizabeth (Stewart) Cunningham, was born December 13, 1831. He was married, on January 17, 1856, to Emily Martha Currens, the daughter of Alexander and Eliza Currens, of Cumberland Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania. Francis (4) Emily Eliza (Currens) Cunningham were the parents of five children - three sons and two daughters.

7. Leander (4) Cunningham - born 1836 - died January 20, 1901 - unmarried at Brooklyn, New York. The youngest son of James (3) and Elizabeth (Stewart) Cunningham was a civil engineer by profession.

* * *

Both James (3) Cunningham, the son of Robert (2) and Martha (Watt) Cunningham, and his wife, Elizabeth (Stewart) Cunningham, are interred in Lower Marsh Creek burial ground. The inscriptions from the markers at their graves follow:-

13. "In memory of - Elizabeth S. Cunningham - wife of - James Cunningham - Born December 15, 1791 - Died December 10, 1858."

8. Adams Sentinel, Monday, December 13, 1858 -

"Died, Friday night, December 10th, 1858, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Cunningham, the wife of James Cunningham, Esq., of Freedom Township, this County, aged about 67 years."

* * *

14. "In memory of - James Cunningham - Born February 26, 1788 - Died February 4, 1867."

9. Adams Sentinel, Tuesday, February 12, 1867 -

"Died, February 4th, 1867, James Cunningham, Esq., of Freedom Township, this County, aged 79 years."

This concludes, for the time being at least, the notes on the Cunningham family, of the Marsh Creek Settlement, in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania. In addition all of the marked graves in the Cunningham family burial plot in Lower Marsh Creek graveyard were mentioned and identified.

The study of the pioneer families will be continued, in this column, next week.

James Edward Paddock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Paddock, R. 2, graduated recently from the State University of Agriculture and Technical Institute, Long Island, N. Y. He received an associate degree in ornamental horticulture. Next fall he will enter the University of Georgia where he will major in landscape architecture.

RAILROAD ASKS PUBLIC FUNDS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Erie-Lackawanna Railroad said Monday it needs financial help from public agencies or it will have to give up passenger services.

In letters to 204 mayors, congressmen, senators, legislators, governors and freeholders representing its North Jersey - New York service area, Erie-Lackawanna chairman William White said the railroad had suffered losses of more than $100 million since 1957.

The road's commuter service had risen to $7.2 million a year, White said, with the state of New Jersey granting $2.2 million to partially alleviate the loss.

The Erie-Lackawanna now c ries 35,000 commuters each way daily except weekends.

It was the second New Jersey railroad in recent weeks to call for financial help to save its commuter operations. The other was the Jersey Central Railroad, which said it would go bankrupt unless it got more state aid. Two other eastern railroads, the Reading, serving Philadelphia, and the Boston & Maine in Massachusetts recently made similar pleas.

TAMIMENT, Pa. (AP)—The Pennsylvania Grocers Association ends its three-day 65th annual convention Tuesday with the election of officers. About 550 delegates, representing 7,000 independent grocers in the state, are attending the meetings. Alex Schoener of Bethlehem was honored Monday for creating the best display for eggs during March, the state egg month.

Actually, however, it is the "boys" at the county home that are causing all the excitement. Unable to find anything that would interest the male guests, therapy directors of the past had given up hope. Things took a turn when Mrs. Kathleen Green took over the post recently. She made a decision. Boys will be boys. Now any Tuesday or Friday afternoon, weather permitting, a hotly contested game of kick ball can be seen in progress. Each guest playing at his own pace but keeping all rules and regulations of the game. Shuffleboard is played by the less frisky outdoorsmen.

To be able to relate a true story like this brings me much happiness. To live in a county where so many take an interest in the county home and its guests, is a privilege.

It is a cheery sight these days to see the Adams County Home guests "in action." Motorists are amazed to see the swings with colorful awning tops, constantly in use. Shaded from the direct rays of the sun but still enjoying the outdoors, guests have discovered anew the pleasures of swinging in a swing.

FIVE HELD IN $130 ROBBERY

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP) — Five Bucks County young men, one a nephew of a Bristol Township commissioner, were held for the grand jury Monday night on charges of robbing a gasoline station attendant of $130.

Justice of the Peace John Walker held all five without bail but two telephoned Judge Lawrence Monroe of Bucks County Court, who set $1,500 bail for each.

Freed on bail were James Levay, 20, Parkland, and Charles Bremmen, 21, Croydon.

The others are Joseph Bellerby, 21, Croydon, a nephew of commissioner Joseph Bellerby; Richard Coates, 22, West Bristol; and William Tizekker, 21, Levittown.

All were charged with robbery receiving stolen goods and conspiracy. Bellerby also was accused of assault and battery on the attendant, Harry Bortel, 44. Vincent Faragalli, Bristol police chief, said the men held up a service station Sunday morning.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Senator Case Will Go For Scranton

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., broke with precedent today and announced he is supporting Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton for the GOP presidential nomination.

Case said in a statement he had hoped to follow his state's tradition of remaining an uncommitted delegate until the GOP National Convention opens in San Francisco next month.

But he added, "It appears that if leadership is not taken now, the convention would be foreclosed against Scranton before it met."

Case's action put at least two of New Jersey's convention votes in Scranton's column. Five New Jersey House members, including Rep. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, a delegate, announced Monday they are backing the Pennsylvania governor.

WHIRLY PEEPERS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The president of the greater Miami Beach Motel Association complained that sight-seeing helicopters were deliberately flying low over motel solariums "to the embarrassment of guests."

3 ATTORNEYS ASK BIG FEE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Three attorneys who successfully prosecuted an anti-trust which led to a $28.9 million judgment, have asked the U. S. District Court to have those same companies pay their legal fees. They suggested that the fees be set at $4,125,000.

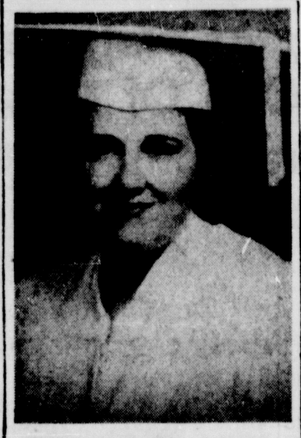

It is not unusual in federal courts for a plaintiff's lawyer to ask the judge to set a reasonable fee and assess it against the defendant, once convicted.

But the court attaches said the large amount asked in this case, and the suggestion of the amount by the attorneys themselves, was unusual.

Attorneys Harold E. Kohn, Aaron M. Fine and Dolores Korman, representing the Philadelphia Electric Co., the Conowingo Power Co. (a P.E. subsidiary), and the United Gas Improvement Co., had sued six electrical firms on charges of price-fixing and bid-rigging.

The verdict against the electrical firms was returned on June 2, and Judge Joseph S. Lord III trebled the damages.

The six firms are: Westinghouse Electric Corp., General Electric Co., Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., McGraw-Edison Co., Mooney Electric Co., and Wagner Electric Co.

Miss Jane E. Rau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd V. Rau, Table Rock, has been accepted at St. Mary's Fursisen Hospital, School of Nursing, Philadelphia. She attended St. Francis Xavier School and was graduated May 31 from Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown. She will begin nursing studies in September.

LBJ PRESSES POVERTY BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prospect of final congressional action on the civil rights bill within 10 days was clouded slightly today.

President Johnson reportedly has told House Democratic leaders he wants his top - priority poverty bill passed before the House adjourns for the Republican presidential convention.

This could clash with a preconvention recess the Republicans have been counting on. Their platform committee meets in San Francisco the week before the convention starts July 13, and many congressmen are on it. Others want to testify.

Charles A. Halleck of Indiana told reporters Monday that Republican members of the House Rules Committee might not be so inclined to cooperate in sending the civil rights bill to the House floor if they are denied the courtesy of an early recess.

Accidents kill nearly 12,000 U. S. children every year.

Reds Pumping Men And Machines Into Zanzibar

ZANZIBAR (AP)—The Soviet Union, Communist China and East Germany are pumping men, materials and machines into Zanzibar.

President Julius Nyerere of the new Republican of Tanganyika and Zanzibar is trying to assert his authority in the island 25 miles off the East African mainland.

Zanzibar's own president, Abeid Karume, 58, a Moslem, probably has no deep love of communism. But the island leader, a seaman for 22 years, seems unversed in the ways of Communist infiltration.

TOP PERSONALITY

Karume is the idol of the Zanzibar Africans and the island's most powerful single personality.

Asked this month about Communists in positions of authority in Zanzibar, he replied: "What are one or two men? I have the power and I have my own eyes and ears."

Karume cites generous Communist aid as an indication of the bloc's friendship and says anyone who helps Zanzibar is welcome.

150 TECHNICIANS

Some 150 technicians and experts from the Communist bloc are believed to be working in Zanzibar.

British civil servants have been replaced. East Germans have taken over the Finance Ministry and are helping run the radio station, Information Ministry, schools and medical services. They are doing preliminary work on projects to rehouse thousands of Africans huddled in squalid shanties outside Zanzibar town.

The Red Chinese are firmly ensconced in the agriculture department and are planning rice growing and other farm schemes to reduce the island's dependence on cloves.

INTEREST-FREE LOAN

China has granted Zanzibar an interest-free loan of $14 million, much of which will be in the form of equipment and services.

Soviet technicians have taken over running of the harbor and providing officers for Zanzibar's two coastal passenger ships. Soviet instructors are training about 400 recruits in the people's liberation army in the use of their new Soviet equipment.

Some of this was displayed at the big May Day parade, "but you didn't see all of it," says Maj. Ali Mahfoud, the army's Havana-indoctrinated second in command.

RED LITERATURE FLOOD

The army largely is officered by Zanzibaris of Arab origin and small groups have been sent behind the Iron Curtain for further training. Other Zanzibari troops reportedly are being sent to Indonesia.

As a result of Nyerere's influence, Zanzibari troops have discarded their Cuban-style caps and uniforms and now wear the standard green berets and uniforms of the Tanganyika forces.

Communist literature is everywhere. The Soviet Embassy hands it out to school children. The works of Mao Tze-tung crowd bookshops.

The United States embassy has also been permitted to reopen its reading room since Zanzibar and Tanganyika agreed to unite.

Western diplomats are hopeful Karume's African nationalism may come out on top and that Western presence may slowly be re-established.

MAN IN JAIL MOST OF LAST TWENTY YEARS

The opinion of Adams County court dismissing an appeal by Robert C. McKee, currently a prisoner in the Pittsburgh Penitentiary for a writ of habeas corpus, disclosed how a jail sentence can stretch out, if a prisoner commits another crime while on parole.

McKee had asked release under habeas corpus proceedings on the basis his constitutional rights were violated when he was sentenced in 1942 by the Adams County court.

In the opinion tracing the record since that time the court noted that McKee was sentenced August 7, 1942, by Adams County to from 7½ to 15 years. At the end of the minimum sentence, February 7, 1950, McKee was paroled and immediately began a sentence of 7½ to 15 years imposed by Centre County on another charge, with that sentence to begin at the expiration of the Adams County sentence. Later he Centre County minimum was reduced to three years and McKee was paroled. August 19, 1954, he was recommitted on a technical parole violation and then was released April 24, 1956. Since the parole violation was technical the time in jail and on parole counted. As a result the Adams County maximum would have expired August 7, 1957. But on March 11, 1957, McKee was sentenced to from two to five years for burglary in Indiana and so, on June 11, 1959, he was brought back to Pennsylvania as a parole violator. Since his parole had been violated by a crime, the time in the Indiana prison did not count on his Adams County and Centre County sentences. The maximum Adams County sentence ended on September 24, 1960.

McKee escaped from jail September 26, 1961, was apprehended two days later and on October 30, 1961, was sentenced by Centre County to serve three to six more years at the expiration of any sentences then over him.

The Adams County court noted however that the Adams County sentence had expired by the time McKee escaped in September, 1961, and as a result Adams County no longer has any jurisdiction over him and the petition for a writ of habeas corpus was dismissed.

Girl, 18, Killed By Sniper's Shot

NEW YORK (AP) — An 18-year-old girl was shot to death early Tuesday, apparently by a sniper, as she stood talking with a younger sister and a woman acquaintance in a Times Square area parking lot.

The bullet came from a height, struck Joan Wilson in the top of the head and emerged just above the nape of the neck. Police said a fragment of the bullet grazed the sister, Margaret, 15, on the upper part of the right arm.

The sisters had been to a graduation party.

The younger sister, known as "Tootsa," was graduated Monday from Holy Cross School. The older sister met her at a graduation party and they left together.

Wedding

MRS. KIJEK

Miss Helen Elizabeth Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Swope, R. 5, became the bride of Anthony Francis Kijek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kijek, Kohler Mill Rd., New Oxford, in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Bonneauville, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. Louis Forgeng was the celebrant for the Nuptial Mass. The altar was decorated with white pompons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of imported Chantilly lace. The bodice had a scalloped neckline which was edged with scalloped lace and highlighted with iridescent sequins. The lace sleeves were of fingertip length. The very full skirt in the front had one big tier of lace. The back of the skirt was tiered with ruffles which were highlighted with iridescent sequins. She carried white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rita Swope, the maid of honor, wore a full-length aqua gown of silk organza, with scalloped neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves and bell shaped skirt. The train fell from the top of the gown. She carried white carnations with rosebuds tinted aqua.

RECEPTION HELD

Charles Biesecker, Hanover, served as best man and the ushers were Paul Barnes, Rockville, Md., and Bernard Kijek.

The bride's mother wore a blue dress with a corsage of white carnations and rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a pink dress with a similar corsage.

Following a reception held in the Bonneauville fire hall the couple left on a wedding trip to Loretto, Pa., where they will reside.

The bride graduated from Delone Catholic High School in 1961 and attended St. Joseph's School of Nursing, Lancaster. She was formerly employed at the Warner Hospital. The groom graduated in the same class. He is a student at St. Francis College in Loretto where he will be a Senior. He had been employed by C. W. Test Construction Co., Hanover.

Out-of-town guests were present from Florida, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, Maryland, Delaware, Lancaster, Manchester, York, Elizabethtown, Lebanon, Wilkes-Barre and Pittsburgh.

PA. OATH IS NOT AFFECTED

HARRISBURG (AP) — A recent U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing loyalty oaths in the state of Washington will not affect Pennsylvania, in the opinion of the State Justice Department.

The court held June 1 that the Washington oaths were vague and obscure as to what is disloyal and subversive.

"Our oath is very simple and very clear," First Deputy Atty. Gen. Edward Friedman said Monday. "There is no application to the Supreme Court decision here."

The Pennsylvania oath became law in 1951 and was upheld by the State Supreme Court in 1954. There have been no subsequent challenges.

Two Girls Face Holdup Charges

HARRISBURG (AP) — Dist. Atty. Martin H. Lock says he will turn over two teen-age girls charged with murder, to a grand jury for prosecution on three additional charges stemming from a holdup attempt.

The action was ordered Monday by Judge Walter R. Sohn in Dauphin County Juvenile Court.

Lock said the new charges against the girls — Romaine Dawson, 17, and Cressie L. Krease, 14, both of York—were assault with intent to kill, unlawful carrying of firearms and attempted robbery.

Police said the girls were accused of attempting to rob Richard .C. Custer, 68, of Harrisburg last March 26 on a city street. One shot was fired, but no one was hurt.

CUBAN COAST MINED

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Exile News Service claimed today that Cuba's northwest coast has been mined to prevent anti-Castro landings and to keep Cubans from fleeing the country.

The service, quoting underground sources, said mines have been placed 600 feet apart along the Pinar del Rio Province coast that faces Florida.

Says Clergymen Should Mold PO

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Clergymen can and should be moulders of public opinion, says the Rev. Dr. Edward T. Dahlberg, former president of the National Council of Churches.

"The world is weary of the church that keeps silent on the issues of life," Dahlberg said Tuesday in a speech to pastors of the 220,000-member Church of the Brethren.

Dahlberg, minister-in-residence at Cozer Theological Seminary in Chester, Pa., spoke at a retreat opening the 178th annual World Conference of the church.

He urged the ministers to take the trouble to sit down with newspaper editors and publishers to explain what they stand for, and to spend more time as counselors to political leaders.

SCOTT URGES REVISION OF POVERTY PLAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., urged the Senate Public Works Committee to revise President Johnson's Appalachia program along the lines suggested by Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

The changes included provision for an additional $10 million to help coal producing areas.

Scranton urged a House public works subcommittee last month to approve the Appalachia program but not without making some substantial changes in it.

LACK AMENDMENTS

Scott submitted to the Senate committee, copies of Scranton's statement and memorandum outlining those changes.

In his prepared testimony, Scott said the $10 million to help Appalachia's coal regions has been agreed to by President Johnson but amendments incorporating them in the program have not yet been sent to Congress by the administration.

"These funds are urgently needed to combat the most serious problems afflicting the Appalachian portions of Pennsylvania," Scott said.

He said the money would be used to restore coal regions seriously afflicted with coal mine subsidence, surface caving, underground mine fires, abandoned strip mines and pits and unsightly culm dumps.

Dalmatian Gets Luxury Homes

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Rorscharch, an 8-year-old Dalmatian, will spend the summer alternating between a sumptuous home with a splendid picture window and a leading thoroughbred farm.

His master and mistress, Thomas E. and Bessie Hager Masters, are being divorced and each wants sole possession of the animal.

Masters says he has a concrete block doghouse with a picture window for Rorscharch at his home at nearby Nicholasville. Mrs. Masters says she would keep the dog at Maine Chance Farm near Lexington.

Circuit Judge Nolan Carter ruled Tuesday they would alternate posession monthly, with visitation privileges, until the divorce is final.

After that, the judge said, he would have to figure out who gets the dog—"or eventually just have to cut it in half."

COLLINS, Miss. (AP) — Law authorities have been alerted to the theft of 41 rifles and 1,000 rounds of ammunition from a National Guard armory here.

The armory, in Covington County in the southeast portion of Mississippi, was broken into late Saturday. Guardsmen reported the theft to the sheriff's office.

Federal agents were also informed since the theft involved federal property.

This group of Ninth and Tenth Grade Y-Teens is shown meeting at the "Y" to make last minute preparations for the trip to the annual Mid-Atlantic Y-Teen Conference at Elizabethtown College June 21-27 (left to right): Linda Parish, Mrs. Larry Parish, advisor; Jean Newell, Ellen Musser and Mary Tauscher, Barbara Bulleit accompanied the group.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

FASHION KICKS UP A SNOW STORM. It's going to be a white summer, according to fashion's barometer.

Nothing looks fresher than white, of course, or better shows off a tan. White leaves the door wide open, too, for a new drift in accessories. The best thinking favors subtle, off-beat touches. Meant purely as a guide, here are a few possibilities:

With a white linen daytime suit . . . a "wig" chapeau made of white daisies with yellow centers . . . the palest yellow fabric gloves . . . leather pumps and handbag in taupey beige . . . white enamel jewelry.

With a late-day, white lace dress . . . moss-green pumps, kid or fabric . . . for the hair or waistline, a gardenia tied with a silky moss-green bow . . . white fabric or glace shorties . . . white pearl necklace and earbobs . . . a tiny handbag of gold mesh.

With white tailored slacks and silk shirt . . . black patent leather "dancing school" flats and a shiny black straw tote.

With a white pique patio dress . . . white thong sandals . . . a lei of Harvard red carnations (fake, of course) . . . heavy gold bracelets.

With a white cotton beach shift . . . natural straw flats and beach bag . . . ropes of bright, multicolored straw fruits or beads.

In the main, the key to those combinations is the interplay of soft shades with white. The effect is newsy and gives white fashions an individual stamp.

MOST FLATTERING COLORS

In fashion, nothing makes you lovelier than color. It can enhance your skin, hair, eyes and figure; it can express your individuality and style. Great powers, those! ARGUE AGENCY TO POLICE FAGS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A broad congressional investigation into cigarettes opened Tuesday with a row over who, if anybody, should police smoking.

The first witness, Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, came before the House Commerce Committee with a plea to let the Federal Trade Commission go ahead with its plans to require that cigarette containers have a health warning.

First, she asked Congress to "do nothing which would obstruct or impede the implementation" of the FTC program or a public health service plan for mass research and education on smoking.

Mrs. Neuberger also anticipated the testimony of a witness scheduled to follow her, Surgeon General Luther H. Terry. She said Terry would testify that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare "has now determined that HEW should be given legislative authority to regulate cigarette package labeling."

FOUR VEHICLES CRASH; 2 DIE

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — persons were killed and three others hurt Tuesday in a four-vehicle crash about a mile west of Washington on Route 70.

The dead were Tempe White and Minnie Cole of Memphis, Tenn.

Admitted to Washington Hospital in fair condition were Thomas B. Harvey, Zanesville, Ohio, and Mrs. Addie Dumas, 53, Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Verda Bradshaw of Memphis was treated and released.

R. C. CORRIGAN FIGHTS FOR MOVIE RANCH

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ray (Crash) Corrigan, who endured hundreds of battles in his career as a Western actor, is engaged in the fight of his life. His opponent: his ex-wife.

The prize is the Corriganville movie ranch, 1,611 acres of rock-strewn hills and Western sets 25 miles north of Hollywood. Crash paid $11,000 for it in 1937. A fortnight ago the former Mrs. Corrigan outbid him in court with an offer of $2,506,000 for the property.

Crash has his aces in the hole. If his ex-wife comes up with the purchase price, he'll get half as his share of ownership. His production company holds a 23-year lease on the ranch, so he intends to continue operating it.

HOUSING DEVELOPMENT

This was the latest of a series of court clashes in which the ex-wife, now Mrs. Rita Stiltz, has tried to wrest control of the property from Corrigan. She has plans to turn the ranch into a housing development.

"When I bought this place, it had been used as a dump for 30 years," he recalled. "Nothing but tin cans all over. It took me three years to clean it up and build camera roads so movie companies could work here."

"I put 30 years of my life into this place. I built it from nothing into a top tourist attraction that has has as many as 15,000 visitors a day.

"I'd like to go on building it. I've had moneymen from the East offer to back me in making this a Western Disney'and."

He continues to operate Corriganville for the summer trade seven days a week. He runs the place with a firm, benevolent hand. At 57, Crash remains a robust figure, able to take a horse fall with the best of the stunt men.

State police said a car driven by the Rev. Booker Dumas, 54, of Memphis was stopped on the Route 70 overpass over Route 40 apparently out of gas when it clipped from behind by a car driven by Myron Turner, 19, Delaware, Ohio.

A truck driven by Harvey swerved to avoid the cars and rammed the side of the overpass.

A second truck, a tractor-trailer driven by Eugene Boyle, 33, of Hazleton, Pa., slammed into the Dumas car, police said.

Two White Men, 1 Negro Are Missing After Paying Fine In Mississippi Town

By ED McCUSKER

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Mystery deepened Tuesday in the strange disappearance of three young civil rights workers. They were last heard from Sunday night after paying a speeding fine in this east central Mississippi town.

The FBI and the Mississippi Highway Patrol pressed a search for the two white persons and a Negro, part of the first wave of summer volunteers seeking to reform this state politically.

Missing were Andy Goodman, 20, and Mickey Schwerner, 24, both of New York City. With them was James Cheney, 22, a Negro member of the Congress of Racial Equality from Meridian.

OPEN STATE DRIVE

They came here Saturday after a week's orientation course for the Mississippi "Freedom Summer Project" in Oxford, Ohio. Other workers spread over the state during the weekend to launch voter registration drives and advise Negro citizens of their rights.

With Cheney at the wheel they drove to Philadelphia, reportedly to see the ruins of a Negro church that burned last week after armed whites broke up a church board meeting.

Officers stopped the three Sunday and charged them with speeding. They were let go after being held in jail several hours. Cheney paid a $20 fine.

DEMAND SEARCH

Sheriff's deputies said they released them about 10:30 p.m. A spokesman for the Neshoba County sheriff's office said a patrol car followed the workers "several blocks to make sure they got out of town all right."

As hours passed without any sign of the trio, concern rose. Cries came from civil rights groups for a search.

In New York, James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, called for an air and ground search by the Meridian Naval Air Station.

UNABLE TO CALL

The Council of Federated Organizations, one of the groups spearheading the summer drive, said because the three were not heard from Sunday "that means they haven't been physically able to call."

FBI agents arrived in Philadelphia Monday night. In Washington, Edwin O. Guthman, Justice Department information officer, said the FBI was making a full probe of the "possibility that they are being held against their will or that they are otherwise being deprived of their civil rights."

The Mississippi Highway Patrol was ordered to do everything it could to help the search.

VIET NAM IS NOT CAMPAIGN ISSUE, LODGE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge said today he doesn't see how the war in Viet Nam can be an issue in the U.S. presidential campaign—"It involves the Eisenhower administration and the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, and the Truman administration."

"In history when you've had a disaster," Lodge told newsmen, "then that becomes a political issue, even if the politicians do not do anything about it. But of course there's no outlook of that kind for the time."

Lodge announced his resignation as U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam Tuesday and said he was returning to the United States to help Gov. William W. Scranton's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

The front-runner for the nomination, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, said in Washington that "the Johnson - McNamara program of indecision and vacillation has made it impossible for (Lodge) to carry out his ambassadorial functions properly and undoubtedly motivated his resignation."

"EXCELLENT TERMS"

But Lodge said he had been on excellent terms with President Johnson's administration. In an earlier statement Tuesday night, he said: "Viet Nam is on the right track and, with persistence, its freedom and independence will surely be achieved."

Lodge, Republican vice presidential candidate four years ago, said he is returning only to help Scranton, governor of of Pennsylvania, and is "not a candidate at all."

"I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself," he said. "I cannot be drafted and there are no hidden meanings."

The ambassador plans to leave Saigon Sunday, a year and a day after he was appointed by the late President John F. Kennedy.

A U.S. military source said the military command in Saigon expects intensification of the war against the Communist Viet Cong to result from the appointment of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to succeed Lodge.

Miss Reis Fined For Assaulting Cop

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Lillian Reis, former night club owner awaiting sentencing for alleged part in a Pottsville burglary, was fined $50 Tuesday for assault and battery of a policeman in Feb., 1963.

Miss Reis and a companion, Ralph Staino, were stopped by two policemen in front of Miss Reis' south Philadelphia home.

Staino started a fight, one of the policemen testified, and Miss Reis became involved.

Staino, now serving four to nine years for convictions in the Pottsville robbery, was fined $250 for his part in the alleged assault.

Woman Rescued After 80-Ft. Fall

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A 25-year-old New England woman fell 80 feet down a crevasse on Mt. Marcus Baker Tuesday and suffered only minor leg injuries.

"I guess we are stronger than we think we are," Mrs. Aaron Schneider of Concord, Mass., said after she was airlifted here. "I landed on my leg and wasn't even knocked out."

The other members of the party, her husband, John Bosman, Saint Davids, Pa., and Hilda Bading of Anchorage, pulled Mrs. Schneider up in about 30 minutes.

The accident occurred at the 11,000-foot level of the rugged 13,250-foot mountain located in the Chugach range about 75 miles northeast of here.

5 CIGARETTE FIRMS SUED FOR MILLIONS

NEW YORK (AP)—A Clarks Summit, Pa., real estate man and amateur golfer has filed a $6 million suit against five major cigarette manufacturers in state Supreme Court here.

Andrew M. Fine Jr., who lost a lung after developing lung cancer, named four other defendants in the suit Tuesday, including an advertising agency.

Fine stated that the companies "embarked intentionally on a program to keep the cigarette purchasing and smoking public, including the plaintiff, from learning and determining the true significance of such smoking."

He further charged the advertising firm with "knowingly" concealing from the public "the risk to human health, including cancer of the respiratory tract organs and other respiratory portions of the body, including the lungs, created or probably created by smoking."

The tobacco firms named in the suit are Phillip Morris, Inc.; R. J. Reynolds, Inc.; American Tobacco, Inc.; Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., Inc.; and P. Lorillard Co., Inc.

According to Stuart Speiser of Speiser, Shumage, Geoghan and Law, which is handling the suit, Fine seeks $5 million in punitive damages and $1 million in compensatory damages.

Also named in the suit were Leo Burnett Co., Inc., an advertising firm; Hill and Knowlton, a public relations firm; Tobacco Institute, Inc., and W. G. Hoyt, executive director of the Council for Tobacco Research, U.S.A.

Man Gives Up In Tax Evasion Case

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 65-year-old man convicted of evading $850,000 in income taxes in 1955 and 1956 surrendered Tuesday to U.S. marshals to begin a seven-year term.

Morris C. Goldberg, former owner of 15 linen supply and laundry firms in this area, has been out on bail since his 1961 trial. His was reportedly the largest tax conviction in the history of U.S. District Court here.

Goldberg later appealed the jury verdict without success to the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court refused to consider the case.

The firms were placed in receivership June 8 when the government moved to foreclose on $4 million in tax liens against Goldberg's estate.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Office of Education today announced allocation of $35,821 to Pennsylvania for research on better ways of educating handicapped children.

The funds, authorized by Congress last year, are for projects to help the blind, deaf, mentally retarded and those with speech and emotional problems.

3 RAILROADS TALK MERGER

BALTIMORE (AP)—Officials of the Baltimore and Ohio and Chesapeake and Ohio Railroads say they will move to merge with the Western Maryland Railway.

The joint statement Tuesday, said the affiliation with the Western Maryland is preliminary to a full merger of the B & O and C & O.

Walter J. Touhy, chief executive officer of the C & O and chairman of the B & O made the announcement with Gregory S. DeVine, president of the C & O, and Jervis Langdon Jr., president of the B & O.

The application will be filed today with the Interstate Commerce Commission to control the Western Maryland through ownership of 63.16 per cent of the total shares.

It will also seek an end of the independent voting trust in which B & O's 42.85 per cent of total shares, has been held since 1932.

HENRY SLESAR IS DIRECTOR AND WRITER

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry Slesar, who has written more television shows for Alfred Hitchcock's television series than any other author, has figured out a way to have his cake and eat it too.

Three days a week Slesar concentrates on his job as creative director of a large New York advertising agency. The other four days belong to his flowering career as a fiction writer.

"I keep my advertising job," said Slesar "because there is no security in writing."

SOLD 40 STORIES

He wrote—and promptly sold—his first short story about eight years ago when he was at home, ill, and had nothing else to do. A short time later, Joan Harrison, producer of the then-half-hour Hitchcock show bought one of his published stories. Since then, he has sold close to 40 stories and scripts—half-hour and, later, hour-long—to the show. He also has turned out two or three hard-cover whodunits, other short stories and currently has two ideas for series under consideration by a network and a film studio.

Where does he find his ideas?

"If you write, you are always on the lookout for something—maybe only a line that is overheard—that will give you an idea.

MOST SUCCESSFUL

Slesar's most successful short story—it has been republished often in anthologies and made into a Hitchcock program—developed from a remark he overheard in a hotel restaurant. An elderly woman said to her companion, "I just don't know what is going to become of Alice. She just sits in that old house and refuses to leave."

Slesar worked and worked around that remark, finally coming up with "The Right Kind of House," a real thriller with a snapper ending about an elderly woman who remained stubbornly awaiting a buyer of a decaying old house on which she had put a ridiculously high sales price.

CBS signed Barbra Streisand Monday to a 10-year, $2-million contract. The 22-year-old singer-actress, who is the brightest new star to emerge in several seasons, will appear in a series of specials next season — perhaps starting with a one-woman show in the fall.

OFFER RETRIAL, NO RELEASES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The state Superior Court has outlined the procedure to be used to comply with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling guaranteeing free legal counsel to the poor in all criminal trials.

The Supreme Court's decision on Gideon vs. Wainwright extended "due process" provisions to state courts. Thousands of prisoners filed habeas corpus petitions based upon a retroactive interpretation of the court ruling.

The Pennsylvania court was acting on the appeal of Thomas F. Goodfellow from the denial of his writ of habeas corpus presented to Chester County Common Pleas Court.

Goodfellow, serving a sentence for larceny and prison breach in the state correctional institution here, alleged in the petition that his constitutional rights were violated at the time sentence was imposed upon him because he was not represented by counsel.

Judge Robert E. Woodside said in Tuesday's decision that prisoners found to have been sentenced without benefit of counsel are not to be released, but held for retrial.

$100 Wire Total Loss To R. Loss

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—Richard Loss received a telegram from Seattle, Wash., asking for $100. It was signed by his son, Richard Loss Jr.

Loss wired the money. Then he realized something was wrong. His son lives in Princeton, N.J.

Loss checked with Loss Jr. and found he hadn't been to Seattle.

Loss lost no time in contacting authorities. It was a phony wire, they said. The $100? A total loss to Loss.

LOSES LIMBS UNDER TRAIN; MAY SURVIVE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two women watched Tuesday as a teen-age boy leaped from car to car on a slow-moving train—then slipped and plunged to the tracks.

"I shouted to him, real loud, to lie still and not move," said Mrs. Lois Walsh.

The boy apparently heard. He ducked his head.

Then, said Mrs. Walsh "something beneath one of the cars caught him and turned him over and over beneath the wheels."

When ambulance attendants reached the scene, they called for the coroner. The apparently lifeless body of Walter Felder lay between the tracks. The train's wheels had amputated his arms and legs.

Then attendants detected a spark of life. Walter, 13, was hospitalized. Five surgeons battled to keep him alive. In a corridor outside, his mother, Ann McGruder, 42, waited. "My boy is strong," she said. "He's very husky. I'm sure if anyone can pull through this, he can. He's a real boy."

VOTE DISPUTE UP TO COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The state Supreme Court will hear an appeal here July 1 by Justice Michael A. Musmanno against a ruling which discounted votes cast in wrong spaces in the primary election April 28.

Musmanno trails Genevieve Blatt, secretary of internal affairs, by 636 votes in the statewide count for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate. He sits on the Supreme Court bench, but has been on a leave of absence since before the primary election.

Meanwhile, the county board of elections entered its 10th day of hearings on 500 ballots challenged by Miss Blatt's attorneys. The hearings are expected to be completed this week.

The board of elections in Lackawanna County has said that it will announce a decision on 422 contested absentee ballots in that county by the end of this week.

At a press conference after the Supreme Court announcement Tuesday, Chief Justice John C. Bell Jr., who ordered the hearing, said that if the so-called blank space votes are allowed, Musmanno will win the election.

LARGEST CENTRIFUGE

DOWNEY, Calif. (AP)—Scientists here are building what they call the world's largest centrifuge—a machine so big it can take four men on 30-day simulated space flights.

Two capsules mounted at any point on the 150-foot rotating arm each will carry two men, equipment and provisions sufficient for a month's spin, scientists say.

Researchers hope that studying human reactions to the prolonged rotation will give them clues on how man can live and work in space.

The Bible mentions 38 species of birds.

LEGAL NOTICE

GETS BACKING IN DELAWARE

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania has boosted his standing with the Delaware delegation and now has eight or nine of the state's 12 Republican national convention delegates, Clayton S. Harrison, GOP state chairman, reported Tuesday night.

Scranton met with the Delaware delegation Tuesday during a 2½-hour visit.

Harrison did not name the eight or nine delegates or mention who has switched from support of Sen. Barry Goldwater, who recently was reported to have five Delaware delegates favoring him.

Scranton also reported progress with the Delaware delegation. After meeting privately with 11 of the 12 delegates, the Pennsylvania governor said he has "far more than a majority of delegates."

He added, "I have good support—better than I realized when I came here.

The delegation is pledged to favorite son Sen. John J. Williams for the first ballot.

SENK'S CASE IS GOING TO HIGH COURT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has been ordered to reconsider the conviction and death sentence of a Williamsport, Pa., man in the slaying of a 13-year-old girl.

The U.S. Supreme Court, in directing reconsideration of the case of Frank Earl Senk, Monday cited another case on which the high court ruled, that same day, that New York courts had not properly determined whether a confession was given voluntarily.

An allegedly voluntary confession, later repudiated by Senk, was used by the prosecution in Senk's trial for the slaying of Jane Mary Benfield of Centralia, Pa. The girl had been picked up by a motorist near her home. Her body was found later in an abandoned mining area.

CONVICTED IN '62

The defense claimed the prosecution had proved, in the trial, only that Senk had been working as a magazine salesman in the Centralia area, about the time of the killing, July 11, 1961.

Senk was arrested the following Jan. 18 at Russell, Pa., in connection with a morals offense involving two young local girls, and three days later he was charged with the murder of the Benfield girl.

Married and the father of a three-year-old child, Senk is a native of Pittsburgh, but listed a Williamsport address when arrested.

He was convicted in Columbia County Common Pleas Court in April, 1962.

DENIES CONFESSION

In his appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, Senk contended that the confession used against him was coerced and should not have been allowed. Police said he gave the confession voluntarily.

Dist. Atty. Howard R. Berninger had told the trial court the confession described events previously unknown to police. Berninger, demanding conviction and the death penalty, said, "Senk hit her twice. Why did he do that unless he meant to kill her?"

The disputed confession quotes Senk as saying: "I grabbed her throat to make her stop screaming. She broke away from me. I hit her with a rock. When she fell, she fell on the back of her head. She kept screaming and I hit her again."

Federal Cigar Co. Assets Are Sold

DETROIT (AP) — D. W. G. Cigar Corp. has acquired the assets of Federal Cigar Co. of Red Lion, Pa., president Norman Schwartz announced Monday.

Purchase price was not disclosed.

The transaction includes Federal machinery, trade marks and manufacturing processes, but not real estate, Schwartz said.

Federal is expected to dispose of its plant and move the machinery to D. W. G.'s main plant at Lima, Ohio.

MANY FEAR U.S. WILL RISK WAR TO SAVE ASIA

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many Congress members indicated belief today that the administration has decided it is willing to risk war with Red China to prevent Communist forces from overrunning Southeast Asia.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said for one he was apprehensive about a "general expansion of the war in Southeast Asia" but he added in an interview: "I think the administration officials have made up their minds to expand the war."

Aiken, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he hoped that if that decision is made it would be based on "an understanding with Russia that Russia will keep hands off."

UP TO LBJ

"Maybe they can get away with it in Viet Nam and Laos if the Rusians agree to stand back," Aiken said. "The President has to make the decision as to whether we have general war in Asia."

Although few others on Capitol Hill would comment publicly on the situation, Aiken's appraisal that a decision had been reached appeared to be shared by many others after a series of weekend rumblings—above and below the surface—in official circles.

"WORTH RISKING"

One of these came Monday when Gen. Paul D. Harkins, retiring after more than two years as U. S. commander in South Viet Nam, declared it would be "very much" worth risking war with Peking to vase South Viet Nam.

"If the Communists move down into Southeast Asia, it threatens the whole rest of that part of the world," Harkins told reporters on arriving home.

Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., promptly asked the Pentagon to arrange for the four-star general to testify before the House Foreign Affairs Far-Eastern subcommittee.

UNIONS REJECT HOFFA'S PLAN TO HAUL CARS

NEW YORK (AP)— A major revolt against Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa's plan for a nationwide contract in the car-delivery industry shaped up Tuesday with locals from Tarrytown, N.Y., to Baltimore reported out on strike.

The East Coast locals had rejected the pact earlier this month, but the international union ordered another vote. Scattered reports indicated the members voted overwhelmingly against it Monday night.

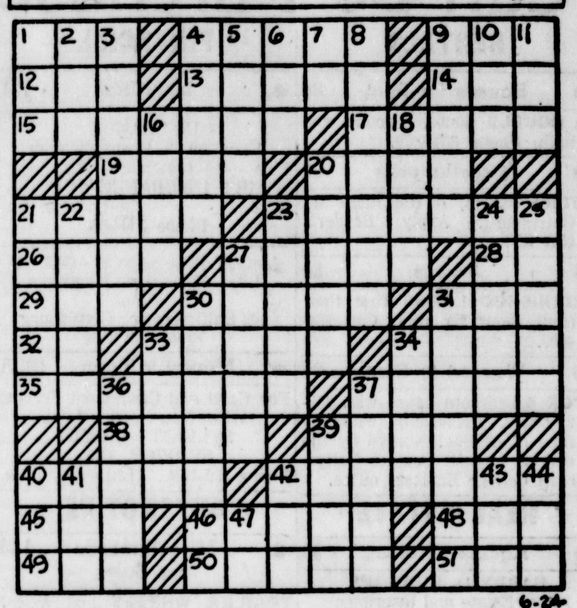

The eight car-delivery concerns which haul new cars from assembly plants to dealers negotiated through the National Automobile Haulers Conference.

Their old contract with the 17 locals in the Eastern Conference of Teamsters, with locally negotiated supplements, expired June 15. It contained a provision calling for the negotiation of a national agreement.

The strike could close General Motors, Ford and Chrysler assembly plants. Cars pouring off the assembly lines would overflow the limited parking space.

Striking locals reportedly oppose the national contract because they fear it would take away their autonomy and some of their fringe benefits, which are negotiated locally to some extent.

MOVIE MAKER DIES IN RAID

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A desire to make movies on an anti-Castro bombing mission last week may have spelled doom for the raiders, Cuban exiles said Tuesday.

"The pilot, Luis Diaz, asked that he be permitted to make the raid in daylight rather than during protective darkness," said spokesmen for the sponsoring organizations, Revolutionary Recovery Insurrectional Movement and Commandos L.

"He wanted to make pictures and show them later to spur collection of funds to buy planes for bigger raids on Cuba."

Diaz, 23, was killed after he and two companions dropped three homemade bombs on a central Cuba sugar mill. Havana radio said the other two were injured when the plane was shot down. Both were captured.

UNION CHARGES FORD IS "LOFTY"

DETROIT (AP) — Hard bargaining between Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers in their impending new contract talks appeared likely today in the wake of clashing preliminary stands by both sides.

The union charged that Henry Ford II could not understand the worker's position. This was the UAW's reaction to Ford's speech Monday in Coronado, Calif., in which he said willingness to accept a strike was a part of "free and responsible collective bargaining."

Ford, board chairman of the firm, said that union demands could endanger the national economy.

"From his lofty position, it is understandable Mr Ford can't make out the American scene below of workers producing more than ever yet being shorted in their share of the prosperity they are creating," said Ken Bannon, director of the union's Ford department.

Testify Against Military Aid Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Against a background of Communist pressures in Southeast Asia, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor testified Tuesday against any cuts in the $1,055,000,000 military aid program.

They described it as a rock-bottom figure in their appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in support of the military assistance portion of the $3.5-billion foreign aid authorization bill. The bill passed the House last week. The measure appropriating the money was under attack today in the House Appropriations subcommittee.

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) —The first contingent of foreign scouts, six from Australia, arrives Tuesday in San Francisco enroute to Valley Forge State Park where the sixth national Boy Scout Jamboree will be held July 17-23. All told, over 800 Scouts from 44 nations will attend with 51,000 American scouts and their leaders.

VENTURI NOT ADMITTED TO BRITISH OPEN

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The transatlantic telephone cable hummed Monday for Ken Venturi, the new American Open golf champion—but it didn't do any good.

The austere Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews refused to budge. Venturi can't play in the British Open July 8-10 at St. Andrews.

He didn't get his entry filed in time, and the Royal and Ancient let it be known—with regrets—that it plays no favorites.

DEADLINE PAST

"I telephoned the Royal and Ancient and told them of Ken's desire to play," said Joseph C. Dey, executive director of the U.S. Golf Association. "They were very nice. They didn't say 'no' immediately.

"They apparently discussed it, then they called back and said they were unable to accept his entry Entries closed May 31."

Of course, when they were taking on players for the 104-year-old grandpappy of tournaments, Venturi had no idea that he might want to play.

DON'T RECIPROCATE

In the throes of an extended slump, he probably would have found it hard to pay expenses. But winning the U.S. Open last weekend in Washington changed things.

"I'd love to play," Venturi said, "but I understand—rules are rules."

The U.S. Golf Association gives an automatic pass to the British champion in the American tournament. The British don't reciprocate.

It makes your house look bigger.

Cars are getting to be bigger, so houses are getting to look smaller.

But one little Volkswagen can put everything back in its proper perspective.

A VW parked in front does big things for your house. And your garage. To say nothing of small parking spots and narrow roads.

On the other hand, a VW does make some things smaller.

Gas bills, for instance. (At 32 mpg, they'll probably be half what you pay now.)

You'll probably never add oil between changes. You'll certainly never need anti-freeze. Tires go 40,000 miles. And even insurance costs less.

One thing you'd think might be smaller in a Volkswagen is the inside.

But there's as much legroom in front of a VW as in the biggest cars.

When you think about it, you really have only two choices:

You can buy a bigger house for who-knows-how-much.

Or a Volkswagen for $1,595.00*.
